

Red Road Three - Enough is Enough

Last Updated Friday, 13 August 2010

The suicide of three refugees has shocked Glasgow and the rest of the country. This is where all the racist scapegoating and tough posturing on immigration and asylum leads.

It is time to stop the state of poverty, enforced idleness and permanent fear of the knock on the door in which our asylum seeker neighbours live. Let them work, contribute, find their own homes, and get on with their lives. Join the Red Road march and rally to show your revulsion at the dreadful consequences of our immigration and asylum laws and demonstrate the real welcoming spirit of Glasgow and the wider community.

MARCH FROM 63 PETERSHILL DRIVE

SATURDAY 13 MARCH 11am

(ten minutes from Barnhill train station or take the number 12 or 56 bus to Red Road)

RALLY AT CITY CHAMBERS GEORGE SQ@12pm

Supported by Glasgow Campaign to Welcome Refugees, Positive Action in Housing, and the Unity Asylum Rights Centre
