

A Moment's Peace Theatre Company	Artistic Director	Shared Space group
A Wallis	Junior lecturer
Aamer Anwar	Lawyer & Human Rights Campaigner	Aamer Anwar & Co., Solicitors & Notaries	People are dead, others were seriously injured, all the while an organisations which profiteer from the misery of asylum seekers remain unaccountable
Abbas Zaidi	Doctor	NHS
Abbey Peebles	Private Citizen, Student
Abdelmagid Gaboura	Private Citizen
Abdelrahim	Private Citizen
Abdul Khalifa	Arabic interpreter	Asylum seekers	Asylum seekers need our help to start build them lifes here then they will start build our new homes here in the UK
Abida Farid	Private Citizen		Those seeking asylum must also be kept safe.
Abigael Baldoumas	Private Citizen
Addison Malloy	Private Citizen
Adela Stockton	Psychological Therapist	Settle	Solidarity
Adrienne amri	Student
Adrienne Hannah	Private Citizen		I cannot sit back and do nothing when human beings are treated so appallingly.
Agus Masondo	Private Citizen		Because people died
Ahmed Almokashfy	Private Citizen	Sudanese community	To support the campaign
Ahmed Khan	Private Citizen	NHS	human rights and respect
Aileen Johnson	Staff nurse		This is a humanitarian crisis
Aileen Murray	Tattooer		I support human rights. Having vulnerable people live in these conditions is not okay.
Ailsa Fyfe	Private Citizen		A
Ailsa Gibson	Private Citizen
Ailsa Kathryn Wright	Private Citizen		Absolute dismay at the conditions that asylum seekers are being housed in within hotels at this time, with particular ref to removal of paltry income and lack of autonomy regarding feeding themselves, also lack of social distancing options at this time.
Aimee donaldson	Doctor
Aimee McGurn	Private Citizen		I want Scotland to offer everyone who lives here basic rights and support. It shouldn't be too much to ask.
Aimee Toshney	Music teacher

Al Thomas	Private Citizen
Alan christopher	Private Citizen		Keep up the great work on behalf of all asylum seekers
Alan James Curtis	Sec., Barnsley Borough City of Sanctuary	see above	We are aware of criticism of Mears in Wakefield
Alan Morris	Retired		To Support the Campaign/Sign the Petition
Alanna Hayes	Private Citizen		I feel an injustice has been done.
Alastair Lings	Private Citizen		The Government and its agents must look after the people in its care. A public inquiry is needed because they have failed in that duty of care.
Alec Carswell	Private Citizen		Refugees are welcome here. It is a basic Human Right that those looking for safety, get it.
Alessandra Anzante	Private Citizen	RefuAid
Alexander David clark	Retired		Keep on and redouble. Your wonderful efforts
Alexandra Simpson	Private Citizen		It is unacceptable to leave people in deplorable conditions. This is affecting people's physical and mental state and the proof is in recent events. Treat people like people!
Alexis Smith	Filmmaker
Alice	Private Citizen
Alieda McKinney	Private Citizen		I do not approve of treating people in the way these asylum seekers have been treated
Alison	Events		Welcome to Scotland x
Alison Anderson	Private Citizen		For humane treatment of asylum seekers, and to ensure new Scots have all the same rights as existing Scots
Alison Cannibal	Private Citizen		Because the treatment of vulnerable human beings seeking refuge in the UK is absolutely deplorable and Mears should be held accountable for their inhumane practices.
Alison Clark	Private Citizen		We need to do better More respect show more humanity
Alison Elliot	Retired		I have been following the conditions of Asylum seekers and feel that the system require more organisation 1)access to country is easier and more ordered 2)more informed people in the home office so that cases are dealt with fairly 3)Swifter processes
Alison Hauenstein Swan	Private Citizen		A society shows its values in how it treats its most vulnerable members. People have come to the UK seeking safety or have been trafficked here and are experiencing a repetition of indignity Instead of a validation of their human rights.

Alison Hendry	Private Citizen		In support of asylum seekers forced into hotels and did not have a risk assessment performed and had their meagre daily allowance removed. We would like to see an independent enquiry performed.
Alison M C Hore	Private Citizen		I have worked as a guidance worker with asylum seekers in the past.
Alison Phipps	UNESCO Chair for Refugee Integration
Alison Pibworth	Musician
Alison Rawles	Private Citizen
Alison Scott	Private Citizen		I think the way the asylum seekers are being treated is appalling. Mears Group should be ashamed. I know I am.
Alison Scott	Private Citizen
Aliya Nisar	Private Citizen
Allana Bell	Social Worker in Training
Allison Docherty	Private Citizen
Amanda	Private Citizen
Amanda Charlton	Private Citizen
Amanda Kerr	Private Citizen		No human beings should have to suffer like this. These people have come to our shores for help and safety only to be treated like animals. Herded up in hotels. Denied basic rights. It is shameful.
Amanda Megson	Private Citizen		It is our duty to take care of the most vulnerable in society. How shocking that profits are put before people. We should be looking after these people as if they were family its the least we can do after all they have been through. Do the right thing.
Amanda Walker	Private Citizen		It's terrible that so much money has been misappropriated under the pretence of providing these vulnerable people with safe accommodation and healthy food, the reality is shockingly poor.
Amber Bauer	CEO	Donate4Refugees	The treatment of our most vulnerable reflects on all of us as a society. I'd heard long before the June tragedy that conditions were horrendous for asylum seekers. We had been funding food drops for one thing. How can we sleep at night when we treat peopl

Ambika Okhandiar	Private Citizen		Sick of the system
Amelia Rogers	Student		I stand with asylum seekers who deserve to be welcome to our country and more than their basic human rights to be met. The home office and Mears have endangered asylum seekers and the public through negligence and a lack of understanding and compassion. T
amos newton	Private Citizen
Amy Ferguson	Radio Producer		People are all born equal, yet some are born into unequal circumstances. The misfortune of being born into hardship shouldn't mean we are allowed to be treated as less, these people deserve more, and I'm so sorry they haven't been shown the kindness they
Amy Hyde	Private Citizen
Amy Longmuir	Private Citizen		Refugees deserve so much better.
Amy MacInnes	Private Citizen		Basic human rights, social equality
Amy McCormack	Occupational therapist
Anabel Marsh	Private Citizen		Asylum seekers deserve a decent standard of housing and support. I am appalled at the way they have been herded into hotels in this crisis
Andrea Williamson	GP		Systemic change is needed. The Home Office and Mears cannot violate people's' rights and be unaccountable.
Andrew Bickerstaff	Chef		Treat people with humanity!
Andrew Collins	Clerk of Aberdeen Quaker Meeting	Aberdeen Quakers	I agree that the conditions described are intolerable
Andrew Lephard	Private Citizen
Andrew Noble	Private Citizen
Andrew Ofoegbu	Private Citizen		Am signing on behalf of all Vulnerable Asylum seekers and Refugees who suffering and is also traumatised as result of unpleasant conditions they have been subjected.
andy locke	Private Citizen
Angel Clark	Private Citizen
Angela Anderson	Private Citizen
Angela Barron	Private Citizen
Angela Cochrane	Careers Adviser		Refugees are welcome in Scotland

Angela Heaney	Children/youth worker	Royston Youth Action	We support this enquiry fully
Angela Ireland	Cafe owner	MILK	Enough is enough
Angela McCormick	College lecturer
Angela O'Hagan	Private Citizen		Dignity and respect must apply in all aspects of all people's lives.
Angelle McCluskey	Private Citizen
Angus Hardie	Director	Scottish Community Alliance	How we treat the most vulnerable in society is a measure of how civilised our society is.
Aniela Piasecka	Private Citizen		Because it is obviously and fundamentally an unjust, unfair and harmful situation manufactured by Mears group that offends everything I stand for.
Anita Lewis	Young persons residential worker		Refugees and asylum seekers cannot be left in this hostile environment, it is time the Scottish government spoke up and time that we stand alongside these people to ensure their basic human rights are reinstated
Anita Shelton	Private Citizen		Human rights for EVERYONE must not be denied!
Ann Ashaye	Private Citizen		N/A
Ann Dorward MaclInnes	Retired		Anger at the treatment of refugees in Britain
Ann Falconer	Private Citizen		I'm devastated to hear how people in need are being treated in my country and want this changing.
Ann Marie Coccozza	Charity volunteer	FAMS (Families Affected by Murder, Suicide, Suicidal Behaviours)	I believe profit and greed are being put before care and compassion.
Ann Marie Miller	Private Citizen		I am signing because this is a deplorable way to treat human beings.
Ann McElhinney	Private Citizen		These human beings are being kept in dreadful conditions
Ann Thanisch	Private Citizen		This is a shocking situation requiring immediate attention
Anna Mendonca	Private Citizen		Because this has to be addressed!
Anna Nicholson-Lailey	Private Citizen
Anna Pearce	Volunteer	ASH Project
Anna Pincus	Director	Gatwick Detainees Welfare Group
Anna wakeley	Social Worker
Anne Carolyn Watson	Private Citizen		People cannot be left with no money to buy essentials and be crowded together in one place.

Anne Chalmers	Retired Social worker (private citizen)
Anne Dunford	Private Citizen		In the hope that the council will do something about the plight of these people - nobody should be living in conditions like that.
Anne Hunter	Private Citizen		I am appalled that vulnerable people, who have already endured so much, are being housed in such awful conditions and being placed in danger as a result. There should be a public enquiry into what is happening here. Meanwhile, people should be found flats
Anne Marie Kane	Private Citizen		Hotels are not suitable accommodation for people seeking refuge from violence, war and persecution. They need a home, a safe space, friendship, care and peace. They need to be treated with respect. None of that can be provided if the the companies involv
Anne Marie McFadden	Private Citizen		I am appalled at inhumane treatment of Asylum Seekers particularly during this pandemic
Anne McEwan	Private Citizen		Because we can do better than this
Anne Mulligan	Private Citizen		Everyone has the right to live in safety with dignity and respect. Asylum seekers should be properly cared for in our country.
Anne Mullin	General Practitioner	GPs at the Deep End Group	I support human rights and there is no democracy without human rights
Anne Petrie	Private Citizen		They've been through enough
Anne Sobey	Private Citizen		What happened to the refugees in Glasgow was an absolute disgrace
Anne Sweeney	Bank Manager
Anne Toms	Private Citizen		The treatment of these people is appalling and seems to be focused on ensuring private profit. Mears are dragging Scotland's name as a warm and welcoming nation down. More importantly, the conditions of these poor people are appalling.
Annie Hashagen	Private Citizen		Inhumane treatment of asylum seekers cannot be tolerated
Annie Tothill	Volunteer	The Unity Centre	2 deaths in 2 months in hotel detention - it is clear that this is an unsafe and hostile environment that is denying people their dignity and basic rights to healthcare, adequate housing and freedom. We support a public inquiry into both deaths and into c

Anthony Buxton	Private Citizen		I consider that what has been happening in Glasgow to asylum seekers is a violation of their human rights that those of us who live in Scotland do not condone. The city of Glasgow should be able to take over the situation and Miers made to pay compensatio
Anthony Clarke	Private Citizen		People seeking safety from abuse of rights need to have these rights observed as they are accommodated.
Anthony Pearce	Private Citizen		It is essential that these refugees are treated humanely and respectfully
Antonia Ineson	Market gardener		The treatment of asylum seekers which has resulted in deaths, injury and terrible living conditions for people who need care and support is shameful and must be changed.
Anwell Moyo	Customer assistant	Teleperformance
Aoife Brennan	Environmental scientist		Refugees need to be treated with compassion and respect, and in a way that preserves dignity and supports mental health
Ari Loughlin	Private Citizen
Ashleigh Wilkie	Social Worker	Barnardos
Ashley Holdsworth Quinn	Research Student
audrey	councillor		The treatment of people seeking asylum in hotels and guest houses is inhumane. We hoped hat the new contract with Mears would improve conditions for people, it is worse. We talk about integration, this cannot happen when people are not allowed to be part
Austin Reid	Private Citizen	Sec of Central Scotland Liberal Democrat party
Averil Lamont	Private Citizen
Averil Mary McHaffie	Private Citizen		I am appalled by anyone being treated in this way and especially people who are asylum seekers and refugees. These people have suffered already by having to leave home and escape danger and need support and help here.
Ayman Hassan	Private Citizen	Human Dignity	Asylum Seekers are not expermental animals their lives matters
B Alaour	Doctor		I support this inquiry to Help avoid potential tragic adverse outcomes on vulnerable refugees
b love	Private Citizen		Human Rights
Babs Gwynne	Private Citizen		The inhumane treatment of these vulnerable people sickens me

babs macgregor	worker		Dignity is a human right
Barbara Drummond	Retired teacher and volunteer advocate		The housing of asylum seekers and refugees needs overhauled so that people are treated humanely and not kept in unsuitable accommodation. The Mears group should relinquish some stock so that more social housing is available.
Barbara Glass	Private Citizen		Feel strongly that whilst Glasgow welcomes our asylum seeking brothers and sisters, we seek to offer them safety and dignity . The appalling treatment the Home Office agents show is not done in my name and I feel the need to stand and be counted to speak
Barbara Helm	Private Citizen		Such a sad and unnecessary situation!
Barbara Robinson	Private Citizen	Glasgow Quakers
Barbara Smith	Banking
Barry Wynne	Private Citizen		To try and bring attention to this tragic subject
Bea Catterwell	Private Citizen
Becki Crossley	Private Citizen
Becky Duncan	Director	open aye
Bel Pye	Private Citizen
Benjamin Dunphy	Dentist
Bernadette Short	Private Citizen
Beth anderson	Student
Beth Hayden	Private Citizen		I believe in the dignity and right to safe housing for all people
Beth McDonough	Writer and teacher		Vulnerable people deserve and need proper support.
Beth Nolan	Private Citizen		People seeking asylum deserve humane individualised treatment that meets all their needs.
Beth Revuelta	Private Citizen
Beth Sabey	Private Citizen
Bethany Warner	Private Citizen
Bill Fraser	Private Citizen
Billy Singh	Private Citizen
Blair Wight	Private Citizen
Bob Carey-Grieve	Private Citizen
Bob Dixon	Private Citizen		I feel ashamed that this is a what business as usual looks like . t
Bob Rice	Retired
Brenda Murphy	Retired		Justice and human love

Brenda Tamburrini	Private Citizen		I am disgusted by the treatment of my fellow humans and ashamed that this is happening in my city.
Brian Burns	Retired Teacher	Christianity	All human beings should be treated with Compassion and Justice and when arriving in the UK should
Brian Claffey	Private Citizen	Black lives matter Stirling
Brian Cleland	Private Citizen		Equality for all
Bridget Burnett	Mental health nurse		Cruel and inhumane treatment of anyone is never justified.
Bridget Dunne	Teacher	Glasgow City Council	Human rights are being breached. Home Office has to be accountable
Bridget Fowler	Emeritus Professor	University of Glasgow	Hotel rooms may appear to be a good way of accommodating asylum-seekers and indeed the homeless are pleased to have them. But I know from my former asylum-seeker that his does not allow proper social distancing in queuing for food, unless he waits to the
Bridget Fowler	Emeritus Professor		We have a duty under UN legislation to provide accommodation for those refugees (ie asylum seekers) who are facing persecution in their own countries for their ethnicity, political beliefs, religion or sexuality. Many have gone through extreme hardship to
Bridget Ramsay	Private Citizen
Bronwen Currie	Retired	Private citizen	I am horrified at the treatment of asylum seekers, and the outsourcing of responsibility for them to a private company only interested in making a profit. They should be returned to their homes immediately and their allowances restored, and the responsi
Bruce Patrick	Private Citizen		This is a scandal that must be stopped
C Reith	arts
Caitlin King	Private Citizen
Caitriona Thomas	Lawyer		We are all humans.
Caledonia Joynson	Private Citizen		This is inhuman and I want Scotland to do better
Callum Okhandiar-MacDougall	Private Citizen
Carina Herbert	Private Citizen
Carine Freeman	Private Citizen
Carine Gordon	Private Citizen		People are being denied their basic human rights by Sears and the Home Office

Carla Apel	Private Citizen
Carles	Private Citizen		Humanity
Carlo Morelli	Lecturer	UCU
Carol Gilchrist	Director	Maslow's Community Shop.	Maslow's supports this campaign and will work with everyone involved to get an asylum system that treats people fairly and humanely.
Carol Roxburgh	Private Citizen		These people (asylum seekers) are human beings, and should be treated as such - with respect and dignity. It would appear that they were being treated dreadfully.
caroline forbes	Private Citizen		it's important
Caroline O'Toole	Private Citizen		So sad that people were hurt and a tragedy that someone had to die. Living circumstances for asylum seekers needs to be improved
Caroline Wardle	Private Citizen		I'd like to help if I can
Carolyn Futtly	Teacher		I have read of the conditions in which asylum seekers are being kept within the UK and believe this to be a breach of basic human rights
Caron jones	Self employed therapist
Carrie Donnelly	Private Citizen
Carrie Robinson	Private Citizen		I feel strongly that refugees, who have already suffered, should be treated with respect and compassion, as our fellows
Carrie-Ann Merifield	Teacher
Caryn Hastie	Private Citizen		In the hope that this horrific treatment of asylum seekers and refugees is investigated and Stops and individuals and companies are held accountable
Carys Roberts	Private Citizen		The conditions these people have been faced with are appalling and unacceptable
Casci Ritchie	Heritage Sector
Cat Tabbner	Private Citizen
Cath Wallace	Private Citizen	Poverty Truth community
Catherine	Private Citizen		It is tragic that your work fighting for justice & the most basic needs of such vulnerable people should be so necessary.
Catherine Black	Beauty therapist		To help be a voice for refugees
Catherine Chisholm	Private Citizen
Catherine Dyer	Private Citizen		We are supposed to be a civilised society. How can we treat anyone as if they are less than us? We are all equal

Catherine Hoyles	Private Citizen
Catherine Maguire	Private Citizen
Catherine Major	Private Citizen
Catherine McCulloch	Private Citizen		Refugees are welcome here
Catherine Rice	Private Citizen
Cathryn Wheatley	Private Citizen		I am signing because I have been working with the people living in the hotels for several weeks. These people are traumatised, they cannot sleep during the night, they are scared to answer the door. Mears has traumatised hundreds of people in their pursui
Cathy Higgins	retired headteacher		🔗
Cathy McCallum	Private Citizen		-
Catrin Evans	Private Citizen
Catriona Mackay	chef	Perth Against Racism	At a time where we should be looking after the most vulnerable in society, the system has failed resulting in devastating consequences. The terrible conditions that these people were forced to live in has been brought up time and time again and ignored. M
Catriona Mackay	Private Citizen		Mears group have been awarded a contract to provide suitable accommodation and care to vulnerable people. They have clearly failed badly. This cannot be accepted, at the very least lessons have to be learnt so that in future we can insure that only organi
Cecilia McRitchie	Retired Lecturer		Wish everyone success and a fresh start.
Celine Benoit	Private Citizen
Ceri Sutherland	Private Citizen		The treatment of asylum seekers in Glasgow through the Mears group constitutes a human rights abuse of a very vulnerable group of people. Unsanitary living conditions, inedible food, and threats to their ongoing asylum claims if they complain, are unaccep
Charlene Jollivet	Private Citizen
Charlott Rodgers	Private Citizen
Charlotte Collison	Private Citizen
Charlotte Dunn	Student		Support human rights
Charlotte Hutton	Private Citizen	Student Action for Refugees Glasgow

Charlotte Hutton	Private Citizen		STAR strongly condemns hotel detention and demands that Mears and the Home Office are held accountable for the inhumane conditions asylum seekers in Glasgow have been subjected to.
charlotte isaac	Private Citizen		These vulnerable people are seeking sanctuary and safety, we as a society should care more and not let uncaring private companies like Mears group dump people in run-down hotels, with inedible food and no freedom - a place where nobody would want to be sh
Charlotte Margaret Wright	Private Citizen
Chelsea McKinnon	Private Citizen		Because I do not believe caring for our refugees should be left in the hands of a private, for-profit corporation and the evidence is clear that they do not care about the individuals in their charge and are committing criminal fraud, stealing the taxpaye
Cheryl jordon	Private Citizen
Chiara McMorran	Student
Chloe Allan	Private Citizen
Chloe LEVASSOR	Project Co-ordinator Refugee Action	Refugee Action	Thank you for doing this
Chris Aitken	Private Citizen
Chris Bainbridge	Bartender	Stand up to racism Glasgow	Refugees are welcome here
Chris Hely	Teacher		Humanitarian reasons
Chris MacGregor	Private Citizen		Outrage at the way these people are being treated
Chris Pountain	Private Citizen		We need to understand why those in authority appear to have no concern for the welfare and interests of those for whom they are responsible. Do they even care?
Chris Stephens MP	MP
Chris Ward	Private Citizen		The way the Mears Group has neglected basic standards of living for people in its accommodation whilst lining its own pockets is disgusting, and shows that it is absolutely unfit for purpose. Not only should its contract with Glasgow City Council be termi
Chris wiles	Private Citizen		The tragic events seem to have been avoidable and this needs to be properly investigated

Chrissie Hirst	Private Citizen		Human rights are universal. British institutions are responsible for protecting them.
Chrissy Bell	Private Citizen		I am signing because the heartless acts by the MEARS Group and the Home Office is a breach of human rights. Things must change. We must help asylum seekers and refugees to have access to basic human rights, support, legal advice and at the end of the day
Christiane McKeown	Volunteer group facilitator (mental health)		This has to be investigated by an independent group, to bring to justice those who are receiving govt money to house and care for the refugees and asylum seekers...and who quite blatantly did not.
Christine Gibson	Retired		I had no idea that an organization was able to profit from refugees in Glasgow.... shame on us all
Christine Lee	Private Citizen		Some serious questions need answered honestly
Christine Lloyd	Retired
Christine McInally	Private Citizen		Against the inhuman manner in which asylum seekers have been treated.
Christopher Ho	Caseworker	Positive Action in Housing
Christopher Rowe	Church of Scotland Parish Minister		Thank you for highlighting some of the story behind recent events. Let us listen to the voices of vulnerable asylum seekers.
Christy Mearns	Councillor	Scottish Green Party
Ciara Maguire	Community Worker
Claire Bell	Private Citizen		It is indefensible that a company profits from a contract that is supposed to help vulnerable people but instead creates further misery and hardship.
Claire Bynner	Private Citizen		Because this system isn't working, people are suffering and I want to help to do something about it
Claire Crothers	GP		Individuals need their own space and home, especially those who have likely lived through trauma. Would you want to live in a hotel for months? Can we respect and love each asylum seeker as if they were our own family?
Claire Donoghue	Solicitor	Claire M. Donoghue Consultancy
Claire Jennings	Private Citizen
Claire Low	Private Citizen		People need to know what is happening in our hometowns.
Claire Lyall	Community Worker	Unite member	Solidarity to everyone demanding the truth

claire montgomery	Private Citizen		I'm signing because I think asylum seekers are being treated inhumanely and this must stop.
Claire Thomson	Private Citizen		O
Claire Tomkins	Private Citizen
Clara Navarro	Private Citizen
Clare Earl	Social Worker		Because these people are being treated appallingly.
Clare Johnson	Carer		Asylum seekers must be cared for compassionately and provided for fully. Any one of us could be in their situation at any time.
Clare Malloy	Community Worker
Clare Mc Cann	Teacher
Clare McBrien	Private Citizen		I am appalled at the decisions made that lead to people being treated in this way. It is inhumane, it is wrong, it is heartbreaking. It must stop now and people should be held accountable.
Clare Moseley	Director	Care4Calais
Clare Tuohy	Private Citizen
Clayton Cameron	Private Citizen		.
Clemens zoller	Private Citizen
Cloudberry MacLean	Local Organising Programme Co-ordinator	Arika	The mistreatment of asylum seekers, refugees and new migrants in the UK is systemic and deliberate. Urgent change is needed. The use of hotel detention is just one abuse amongst many.
Colin Birks	retired university administrator and lecturer		The UK has in the past provided security and care for those in danger. This was a noble tradition, but it is now being trashed by a Westminster government completely devoid of compassion and by outsourced companies that care about nothing but profit. Di
Colleen Molloy	Private Citizen		I am appalled at the lack of care for already traumatised people and the conditions within which they are forced to live. No-one should have to wait in limbo on 70% below the poverty line for more than 6 months regardless on how complex their case
Conner Cole	Private Citizen
Connor Diffley	Private Citizen		They deserve a basic level of human rights at least!
Conor Samat	Bartender
Cora bissett	Theatre director

Craig Monteith	Private Citizen		For equality
Craig Peacock	Private Citizen		A fair treatment for those seeking asylum
Crishantha Jerome Clayton	Private Citizen		Because the Government's handling of asylum seekers has been extremely in-dignifying, treating them worse than animals. These are vulnerable humans who need care and support - not more humiliation.
Cristin Craig	Private Citizen		The treatment of asylum seekers by the Home Office and Mears is inhumane and unacceptable. Asylum seekers deserve to be treated with dignity and respect and given appropriate housing, and welfare support after fleeing their own country.
D Baird	Private Citizen		All people need treated with basic respect and care.
Daisy Hooper	Head of Policy
Dana Givan	Early years		These were avoidable tragedies
DANDREA	Emergency services		A reform of the system is long overdue.
Daniel Brown	Private Citizen
Daniel Robertson	Young Person Support Worker	North Ayrshire Council	Everyone deserves the right to safe and comfortable lives.
Daniela Latina	Researcher
Danielle Smith	Private Citizen
Danny Alderslowe	Youth Coordinator	Gatehouse Drop-In	We see so many injustices around the world with the mistreatment of people who are seeking asylum after leaving traumatic experiences. I fully support the organisations and asylum seekers who recognise the embarrassing and amateur work carried out by the
Danny McCluskey	Private Citizen
Daphne Wassermann	Private Citizen		I am appalled at the situation that these vulnerable people are in.
Dave Sherry	Private Citizen	Unite Glasgow Retired Members Branch	Solidarity Refugees and Asylum Seekers Welcome Here
Dave Watson	Private Citizen
Daveen Wilson	Private Citizen		We are a rich country; we cannot treat people like this.
David Butler	Finance manager		I back this strongly
David Gray	Teacher
David Henderson	Private Citizen		A civilised society treats everyone individual with care and respect. We need to think about the conditions in which we are making refugees a snow asylum seekers live.

David McDowall	Private Citizen
David Mylan	Private Citizen
David Philip Smith	Private Citizen		Because asylum seekers are human beings just like the rest of us, and deserve to be treated as we would like to be.
David Somervell	Private Citizen
David Webb	Private Citizen
Dawn Sweeney	Private Citizen
Debbie Horrocks	Private Citizen		Human beings deserve better care.
Debbie Jack	Private Citizen		To end companies like Mears making profit from people and to get better dignified conditions for asylum seekers
Debora Singer	Private Citizen
Deborah Jackson	Private Citizen		We have a duty of care for vulnerable people. Glasgow Council should take care of the people who have come to the city seeking refuge. Asylum seekers are not chattels to be traded with profit-seeking companies who care little for the people's welfare.
Denis O'Brien	Private Citizen		Because I am ashamed of our country and politicians in treating humans in this way. I want to be proud of my country not ashamed.
Denise McDowell	Private Citizen	Greater Manchester Immigration Aid Unit	Its an outrage that people who have come to the UK to seek protection are being treated like this. Mears is a disgrace.
Denise Rivers	Private Citizen		Because what is happening to these people is nothing short of barbaric and inhuman, I thought we had learned as humans but clearly not all have!
Diana Campbell	Restored		It is fundamental that the Home Office explains its failings to take adequate care of vulnerable people under its protection.
Diana Ellis	Global Education Advisor	West of Scotland Development Education Centre
Diana Mary Dower	retired tourism adviser/teacher	myself, supporter of Refugee Council	To all refugees, may you be returned to your homes here in Scotland immediately & granted settled status soon.
Diane Scott	counsellor pyschotherapist		really agree with the need for a public inquiry into the appalling way asylum seekers and refugees have been treated especially since lockdown
Diane Wilson	Private Citizen
Dinah McDonald	Private Citizen		What happended in Glasgow was the apparent result of a total failure in the duty of care of assylum seekers and should be investigated. No one should be put into a hotel and left with little or no support.

Dolores Lee	Private Citizen		Its morally wrong to treat vulnerable human beings like this
Dominic Roberts	Private Citizen
Don Simpson	Teacher		Personal
Donald Shaw	Creative Producer		The Home Office are acting disgracefully. We need to help and support everyone stuck in socially deprived situations.
Donna McGill	Private Citizen		It's an absolute disgrace that so many vulnerable people were left without adequate support or appropriate food. It was only a matter of time before the situation exploded. 2 deaths are 2 too many.
Doreen Osborne	Private Citizen		The treatment of asylum seekers by Mears in Glasgow is outrageous. As a city we need to take responsibility and sort out the problems.
Dorothy Parkin	Private Citizen	East Dunbartonshire Refugee Action Group	I am shocked, ashamed and outraged that people coming to UK for safety are being treated in such an inhumane way and that tax payers' money is being used si disgracefully by Mears. And this is happening on our doorstep in Glasgow. .a city of supposed welc
Dot Whelan	Community Worker
Dougie James	Private Citizen
Douglas Lindsay	Private Citizen		It is our moral duty to help the vulnerable.
Dr Abubakr Elmardi	Doctor	BMA	It is time to be Humain
Dr David Pritchard	Private Citizen
Dr James Lynch	Private Citizen
Dr Margaret Hills de Zarate	Senior Lecturer, MSc Art Therapy, Queen Margaret University		It is an issue I feel very strongly about.
Dr Nicole Beardsworth	Private Citizen
Dr Rhetta Moran	Chair of Trustees, RAPAR	RAPAR	Solidarity
Dr Roger Neil Barton	Private Citizen		It takes a lot of courage to leave your country to seek refuge and a new life. It is our human obligation to help.
Dr W Arthur Chapman	Private Citizen
Duncan Toms	Private Citizen		An injury to one is an injury to us all, especially when the injury is to those in a vulnerable position who should receive special consideration and should certainly not be discriminated against and treated badly.

Dylan Howel	Private Citizen		Support. Reform.
Eddie Docherty	Private Citizen		The treatment of asylum seekers is an ongoing scandal and there needs to be accountability.
Eddie Hamill	Unison Steward	Unison Glasgow City Branch	Refugees must be made welcome in Scotland and have full access to care provision and support. This is crucial for refugees to be welcome here.
Eddie Thomas	Private Citizen
Edie	Private Citizen
Edith MacQuarrie	Private Citizen
Eileen Dickie	Private Citizen		To change this intolerable treatment of asylum seekers
Eileen Dickie	Private Citizen		The whole situation is immoral and a disgrace to us all
Eilidh Graham	Private Citizen		Because I know people in the hotels and they are highly distressed.. which is making me distressed
Eilidh MacGilp	Teacher
Eilidh Simpson	Student
Ekhlas Ahmed	Human rights activist		None
Ekhlas osman	Private Citizen	Mother of poor org	Justice for the victim
Elaine Docherty	Private Citizen		I think this is important to scrutinize the Home Office and how their actions lead to the further destitution, indignity, and danger to refugees and asylum seekers.
Elaine Downie	Co-ordinator	The Poverty Truth Community
Elaine Ormiston	Private Citizen		Asylum seekers are entitled to decent accommodation and food. It is a travesty that this is not happening under Mears management. I believe care for asylum seekers should revert to a public sector organisation.
Elaine Rietveld	Woodwind Instructor
Elaine Robertson	Private Citizen		A
Elea Koumpouzi	Private Citizen		Justice for people who are running away from persecution
Eleanor Grieve	Private Citizen		We cannot allow this inhumanity to continue to happen in Glasgow or anywhere. Its not enough to just stand by.
Eleanor Haig	Private Citizen		I'm concerned that we are treating human beings like livestock to be "managed" - I support a full investigation into the treatment of asylum seekers and refugees in Glasgow.
Eleanor Janes	Private Citizen

eleanor paul	Private Citizen		Because what's going on isn't right
Elias Qureshi	Private Citizen
Elijash Kasha	Accountant		Take a stand with assylum seekers
Elisabeth Wilson	Private Citizen		This is appalling in a civilised country.
Elise Wardlaw	Housing Support Worker
Elizabeth McEwan	Chairperson	Provanhall Housing Association	We support the work of PAIH.
Elizabeth Perez-Powell	Teacher		Everybody needs to have good quality accommodation and not live in fear of being kicked out. Everyone needs their own front door with the minimum of bed, bathroom and kitchen behind it. I do not understand why some refugees and asylum seekers are being di
Elizabeth Wiggin	Care Coordinator
Ellen	Private Citizen		The treatment of refugees in the city of Glasgow is unacceptable and needs to be rectified immediately. Everyone deserves to feel safe and secure in our city, and not be subjected to further trauma.
Ellen Coyle	Business Change Lead
Ellen Crawford	Private Citizen
Ellen Grant	Private Citizen
Ellen Munn	Private Citizen		I want to support the cause of Asylum seekers and refugees. I am ashamed that U K Government is so reluctant to help Refugees and vulnerable people and that we in Scotland are being refused a voice for justice. WHY DOES THE HOME OFFICE CONTINUE TO RESIS
Ellen Young	PhD Student
Elrasheed Osman	Security guard	Sudanese community in Glasgow	Asylum seekers are suffering from many issues Such as bad accommodations , not good quality Of food , No money for them to phone their family back home,No psychiatric care.
Elspeth Campbell	Private Citizen	Attend society of friends	Support for individuals
Emeritus Professor Neil Connell Spurway	Private Citizen		I am sickened and disgusted by what I repeatedly read about the treatment of refugees by Mears Group and the Home Office
Emilie McSwiggan	Private Citizen		Asylum seekers are people fleeing trauma and hardship in their own country. They came to Scotland for sanctuary. They deserved far better than to be uprooted from safe homes in the middle of a pandemic; to be left without financial, practical or emotional

Emilie Pichot	Student
Emily Bryson	ESOL Lecturer
Emily Cook-Lundgren	Private Citizen		UK gov, stop dehumanising people at home and abroad. Justice for asylum seekers.
Emily Willing	Private Citizen
emma aitken	Project worker for Marie Trust (homeless organisation)
Emma Calam	Private Citizen		I want asylum seekers to be safe and respected. They are human beings, many of whom have already faced great trauma. They deserve better.
Emma Carson	Dietitian
Emma Duffy	Private Citizen
Emma Kempzell	Self employed dog walker
Emma McKee	Private Citizen
Emma Paterson	Private Citizen
Emma Rachael Louise Brown	Private Citizen		Because I've been aware of the shocking way that private companies - first SERCO and then MEARS are able to treat vulnerable people in our society, people who are not allowed by the state to live on what it has been calculated that a person requires to su
Emma-Lee Davidson	Social work student
Erim Ali	Pharmacist	Nhs	Help the needy
Erin Carroll	Private Citizen
Esther Saraga	Private Citizen		I am appalled by the treatment of asylum seekers by this country, which denies people basic humanity and rights. No private company should make money perpetuating this treatment.
Euan	Joiner	Glasgow carpentry collective	People deserve better
Eva Gnatiuk	Private Citizen
Eve MacLeod	Private Citizen		For justice, dignity and to help people heal from trauma and feel welcome here
Evelyn Lavelle	Private Citizen
Evelyn Welsh	Private Citizen		Asylum seekers and refugees are extremely vulnerable often fleeing violence and should be treated with care and compassion.Simple humanity is in order.
Ewen Harley	Private Citizen

F Chevalier	Private Citizen		Providing good, human care should be an obvious service to monitor. Neglecting others for profit is morally despicable.
Farah Javed	Private Citizen
Fariha Thomas	Manager, Youth Community Support Agency	Youth Community Support Agency	Mears and the Home Office must start respecting Human Rights
Faye Clarke	Private Citizen
Fearchar Ian MacIllFhinnein	Interlingual subtitler		Support those that have lost all they had: show that our society earns respect.
Fenella Gabrysch	Youth Programmer	Member of the public	How will justice be served to those whose voices have been silenced. For those no longer with us. The colonial overhang in our racist state policy took their lives. This could have been entirely preventable.
Fergus Andrew	Development Worker		In my line of work, I have seen the devastating impact that living in poor conditions has had and how this affects their mental health and well-being.
Fi Smirk	Telecommunications		Let's get the truth
Fiona Barnett	Private Citizen
Fiona Clark	Support Worker	Fortune Works
Fiona Ferguson	Private Citizen		This situation is a disgrace, to treat fellow humans in this way is completely inhuman.
Fiona Hamilton	Private Citizen		We should treat everyone the way we would wish to be treated. Compassion should be central to our nation's ethos, not just for ourselves, but certainly for those who have already suffered more than we will ever.
Fiona Knowles	Retired
Fiona Langston	Private Citizen		The care of human beings should have standards set by decency and dignity, not by bargaining and the bottom-line.
Fiona M McOwan	Private Citizen		Because I can't believe this is happening. It is shocking, inhumane treatment by a UK Govt contracted body who should be named and shamed for their callous attitude and behaviour, which flies close to insitutional racism.
Fiona McMurray	Private Citizen
Fiona Morton	Private Citizen		I am shocked at the way asylum seekers are being treated. Shameful
Fiona Nixon	Teacher		Don't impose yir 'hostile environment' here in Glasgow!
Fiona Revie	Pharmacist

Fiona Stoddart	Private Citizen		When you have had to flee, your country, home and leave family & friends because you are in danger, you have traveled thousands of miles, been through so much hardship. You deserve the respect and rights to be looked after with appropriate care when seeking
Flora Farquharson	Private Citizen		Dignity and respect is a human right.
Fran Postlethwaite	Private Citizen	SS Stand up to Racism Barnsley	People seeking asylum here should be treated with dignity and respect. Mears should be held to account for their failure to give vulnerable people safety.
Frances Corr	Private Citizen		These people are human beings and deserve decent food, shelter and respect like everyone else. They have also suffered tremendous trauma and need to be treated with compassion not punishment.
Frances Elizabeth Sutherland	Project Manager Destiny Angels	Destiny Foundation, Destiny Ministries SC020228	I write to support Richard Humphrey, Director of His Food as our charity have benefitted greatly from his charity. We have ordered and received large quantities of food, drinks, sweets, biscuits in December 2010, 2013 and 2014 at Christmas time. Reasonab
Frances Hume	National Development Officer
Frances Mary McCarthy	Private Citizen		It is beyond belief that people seeking refuge in UK are treated with such disregard for their wellbeing. I cannot but lend my support to this very important campaign.
Frances McGrath	Private Citizen		Protect asylum seekers dignity and right to a better life
Frances Webber	Retired barrister		I want asylum housing to be returned to the public sector.
Francesca Barbera	Private Citizen
Francoise UWAMAHORO	Support Worker		I fully support this campaign.
Frank Frankgate	Community development practitioner		No one is illegal, and asylum seekers shouldn't be treated as criminals, when seeking sanctuary.
Frank Parnham	Chair	Barnsley Borough City of Sanctuary	I'm frustrated and annoyed by the persistent failures of the Home Office to deal with the problems, many of them, of their making
Fraser McMillan	Private Citizen
Fraser Sutherland	Chief Executive	Humanist Society Scotland
Frederick George Robinson	Retired teacher/tour-guide		I was appalled by what happened at the hostel

Freya Prentice	Student
Fuad Alakbarov	Private Citizen
G MACVICAR	Private Citizen		According to the UN Refugee Convention, the definition of a refugee is someone who: 'owing to a well-founded fear of being persecuted for reasons of race, religion, nationality, membership of a particular social group, or political opinion, is outside the
Gabriel Vest	Bicycle Outreach
Gabrielle Macbeth	Private Citizen
Gabz conetta	Private Citizen		I want these demands to be heard (this is wrong)
Gavin Thomson	Private Citizen
Gaynor Milne	Private Citizen		To create better housing and support
Gemma Archer	Teacher		Nw
Gemma Jennings	Private Citizen
GEMMA murray	Private Citizen
George Arthur	Secretary Barnsley TUC	Barnsley TUC	Government must help asylum seekers stay safe.
George Galloway	Private Citizen
George Heron	Private Citizen		Congratulations on the work you have done. Keep up the pressure
Georgia Keatley-Barclay	Private Citizen
Gerard Kielty	Private Citizen		To help raise awareness of the conditions in which refugees are living.
Ghulam wali	Full time carer		To help people in need
ghzala K	Private Citizen		We need to make accountable the people who have left asylum seekers even more disadvantaged by 'plucking' them out of their homes and left in hotels with little or no afterthought. We need to hear answers and immediate solutions on how these very actions
Gil Hyde	Retired
Gill Hall	Retired		I am ashamed to be a citizen of a country which so unwelcoming
Gill Roberts	Operations Manager
Gillian Bishop	Private Citizen		The treatment of asylum seekers in Glasgow is appalling. Something must be done immediately.
Gillian Ford	Private Citizen

Gillian Houghton	Private Citizen		I am deeply concerned about the appalling conditions and treatment of vulnerable people.
Gillian Lawrence	Private Citizen
Gillian Stevenson	Private Citizen		You're welcome here.
Gina Hayden	Private Citizen		Decent and safe accomodation
Gisela and John Creed	Private Citizen		Asylum seekers should be treated as individuals and not herded into "hotels", they should be given suitable homes and financial and other support to feel welcome and be able to find their way in this basically rich country.
Gisela Renolds	Private Citizen		I work with asylum seekers who need MORE support during this lockdown, rather than less.
Giulia Kerr	Speech & Language Therapist		Because the people the Home Office and Mears are "serving" deserve better. They should both be held accountable for their shortcomings in supporting Refugees and an Inquiry will help to ensure that now and in the future these serious failings are not repe
Glasgow Quaker Meeting (Religious Society of Friends)	clerk of Glasgow Quaker Meeting	Glasgow Quaker Meeting	Glasgow Quakers are appalled to learn about the unsuitable and dangerous conditions for asylum seekers who were "detained" in the Park Hotel and other overcrowded hotels from the beginning of lock-down. This led to tragic avoidable deaths in Glasgow as we
Glen McGhee	Retired NHS worker		Every one needs basic needs
Glen Williams	Private Citizen
Gokhan Gocer	Private Citizen
Goose Masondo	Student
Gordon Gange	Retired	Positive Action in Housing	We are hosting a guest on behalf of PAH, and are horrified at the conditions we have heard of from various sources.
Grace A Buckley	Member Justice & Peace Commission, Archdiocese of Glasgow, National Commission Scotland	Justice & Peace	Every human being matters, all are children of the one God
Grace Franklin	Private Citizen		I know the need for local support for anyone seeking asylum through befriending people over many years.
Grace Green	Private Citizen
Grace Mulholland	Private Citizen
Grace Richards	PhD student	The open university

Grace Richardson	Student
Grace Young	Advocacy Worker		We must care for one another
Graham Hodgson	Private Citizen		Sorry
Graham Martin	Editor	Third Force News
Graham O'Neill	Private Citizen		I agree with the statement in full. There urgently needs to be a full, public and independent inquiry that has those affected by this hotel debacle at its centre and that holds those responsible to account and that changes are made so that this debacle ne
Graham Vahey	Private Citizen		The Home Office has no presence in Scotland and refuses to ask for help from tbe Scottish government. It has to rely on private firms who do not show a duty of care as they are there just to make money.
Grant Cameron	Student
Greg Murray	Guitar merchant
Hailey Maxwell	Support and advocacy worker		Rendering asylum seekers destitute is inhumane and helps no one. Those seeking asylum deserve the same care and dignity as anyone else.
Hajra Hamid	Private Citizen
Hanna Didcock	Teacher
Hanna Gia Louise	Private Citizen
Hannah Jones	Private Citizen
Hannah Mackintosh	Private Citizen
Hannah Roberts	Private Citizen		To show we stand with those treated with injustice.
Hannah Watson	Private Citizen
Harriet Simms	Private Citizen		Everyone deserves the right to safe housing and support!
Hasan Mahmood	Private Citizen
Hasna Dima	Private Citizen
Hayley Scott	Duty Manager	Leith Theatre	No more hotel detentions
Hazel Dier	Private Citizen		There needs to be a public enquiry into why these refugees were moved, and their allowances cut, placing them in a desperate situation.
Hazel Marshall	Admin Assistant	UNISON	Thank you for the job that you are doing. Refugees need our support and I'm sure the majority of Scot's care for their well being too.
Hazel Rooney	Doctor

Hazel Ross McLeod	Retired		Continue your ongoing support to assylum seekers and people who become destitute .
Heather Bain	Engineer
Heather baker	Support Worker	Brithdir mawr	Please treat fellow humans with dignity and respect, as what they have endured so far is not it.
Heather Barr	Private Citizen
Heather Donaldson	Volunteer Development Officer		Glasgow is your home, you deserve kindness, fairness, love and support. We want you to feel happy here.
Heather Maclean	Private Citizen		I'm disgusted and ashamed of the way asylum seekers are treated in this country and the attitudes towards them. They deserve so much more than this and should be able to live safe, happy lives, in actual homes, and with access to health services.
Heather Milton	Private Citizen		People coming to our country seeking refuge or asylum should be treated with dignity and respect. No-one should have to suffer degradation like this in Scotland, or the UK, in 2020.
Heidi Stewart	Private Citizen		Mears are running a racket here and the asylum seekers are being treated in an undignified way by Mears, on top of what they have been through. I'm disgusted by this "service".
Helen Avouris	Private Citizen
Helen Hintjens	Assistant Professor	International Institute of Social Studies, The Hague	God how bad does it need to get before they stop being so stupid?
Helen Hughes	Retired
Helen Kay	Private Citizen		Ashamed of the way refugees are being treated in Scotland
Helen Paisley	Private Citizen	East Dunbartonshire Action for Refugees
Helen Richardson	Private Citizen		I am concerned about the welfare of asylum seekers and why they were moved into hotels - I do not think this has been adequately explained
Helen Riordan	Private Citizen		Deeply concerned about the time taken for asylum seekers applications to be assessed - and the conditions that they sometimes find themselves in as they wait. The lack ongoing communication with them, and updates, during this time is also deeply concernin
Helen Simpson	Teacher		Everyone has the right to a high quality of life

Helen Syrop	Housing Manager	Hope Housing	Praying for healing and hope for those affected and change in our asylum system where people are valued and treated with respect.
Helen Wright	Arts worker		It's disgusting the way people in the asylum system are treated in our country - something needs to change.
Helena Nelson	Poet and HappenStance Press Publisher		This seems to me a human catastrophe occurring in full public view, in a country that thinks of itself as civilised and compassionate. Action needs to be taken, and now. I feel, to my horror, that I am complicit in the fate of these unfortunate refugees.
Helene Witcher	Private Citizen		I have been appalled by reports of the treatment of and wretched accommodation provided for asylum seekers in Glasgow and ashamed on behalf of our government. There has to be timeous and effective monitoring of companies such as Mears who have been contra
Henrietta Gowdie	Private Citizen		Because, despite the situation with Coronavirus, there is no excuse for the inhumane and degrading treatment of people seeking asylum by Mears Group in Glasgow
Hilary Jones	Private Citizen
Hilary Patrick	Concerned Scot		This is a humanitarian disgrace of the utmost severity. We in Scotland must do what we can to see that our fellow human beings are not abused on our soil.
Hollie Davies	Private Citizen		Refugees/Asylum seekers deserve to be treated with dignity and respect.
Hollie Hunter	Private Citizen		because moving humans with barely any notice, and removing what little sense of security they had is inhumane. I don't want to live in a society where treating asylum seekers and refugees the way Mears have.
Holly Richards	Private Citizen
Holly Smith	Private Citizen
Hugh Jones	Private Citizen		All people have basic rights.
hugh mathie	Private Citizen		to support those in need in glasgow
Hugh Waterfield	Private Citizen		Glasgow City MUST ensure that all refugees and asylum seekers are treated properly, which so far, with Mears Group, they seem not to be.
Humza Akbar	Student		Treat others they way you want to be treated.
Iain Carmichael	Retired

Iain French	Youth campaigning programme lead		This kind of behaviour has to stop. Asylum seekers and refugees deserve basic human rights. End hotel detention now.
Iain Newman	Private Citizen
Iain Radcliffe	Private Citizen
Ian Davidson	Retired		Scotland welcomes refugees
Ian Grant McHaffie	Private Citizen		Supporting refugees is a fundamental human decency. A Biblical command too: Leviticus 19:33-34: "When a foreigner resides among you in your land, do not ill-treat them. The foreigner residing among you must be treated as your native-born. Love them as you
Ian MacLaren	Reader in Physics, University of Glasgow		We need to treat these people with basic humanity. Is that too much to ask? We wouldn't treat our own families or neighbours this way. Why is it acceptable to treat these people who have fled to the UK in fear of their lives in such a terrible way?
Ian Neale	Private Citizen		Because I am outraged at the wantonly inhuman treatment
Ian Strangeways	Private Citizen
Ibrahim Aslan	Director	Private citizen	Disgusted at how refugees are being treated.
Ilona Grieve	Family Nurse	NHS
Indre Lechtimiakyte	Senior Project Coordinator	Samphire
Innes Mathers	Retired nurse		These are actual people. Please prove to them and the nation that we ,in Scotland, have a place in our hearts for the oppressed, discriminated . We are a rich country, let us share this small corner of the world with the less fortunate
Iona Stevenson	Civil Servant		I fully support this campaign and am appalled at the government's response so far.
Iona Stoddart	Private Citizen
Iona Zajac	Musician
Irene Kelso	Private Citizen		Asylum seekers have suffered enough.
Irene McCann	Private Citizen
Irene Norman	Retired		No thank you
Irina Preda	Data Scientist
isabel dickens	Private Citizen		I'm signing because I'm disturbed by the information coming out of this hotel that asylum seekers and refugees are not being treated with dignity and that people are left vulnerable without mental health support and due process around safety. The fact tha

Isabelle Salter	Public Relations Manager	Keepmoat Homes	We need to treat all humans as humans.
Isabelle Thompson	Private Citizen		Because every human being deserves dignity, respect and a life
Ishbel Russell	Private Citizen
Isobel Hart	Tutor		We require a public enquiry into people being moved, and the impact this has had on people who are categorised as asylum seekers, to hotels during the Coronavirus
Isobel Hillard	Private Citizen
Isobel Mitchell	Private Citizen
Isobelle	Private Citizen
Iulia Isar	Actor
J	Private Citizen		J
Jaci Cunningham	Retired Nurse		Saddened by the episode in Glasgow. If there has been inappropriate placing, inadequate funding &/or poor care management, further investigations are necessary to ensure no further episodes and people are safely cared for.
Jack Anderson	Private Citizen		Let's show that Scotland won't stand for the Conservative government's appalling disregard for human rights.
Jack Batchelor	Private Citizen
Jack o'flynn	Artist
Jackie carroll	Private Citizen
Jackie Gulland	Private Citizen		Please investigate
Jacqueline Lofthouse	Private Citizen
Jacqueline Noltingk	Private Citizen
Jacque Laird	Private Citizen		To speak up for the vulnerable people.
James Lovell	Private Citizen
James miller	Finance Business Partner		It is my belief that we could better serve asylum seekers by allowing them to work and contribute to society as soon as their claim for asylum is submitted.
James O Neill	Private Citizen		Disgusting treatment of fellow humans
james smith	Private Citizen
JamesTierney	Private Citizen		Because refugees are welcome here!
Jamie Cuthbertson	Private Citizen		I think the situation described is utterly disgusting. People, whoever they are, should be treated in a manner we would wish for ourselves. Glasgow should be ashamed of itself. I don't want my taxes being used to make profits for companies that treat othe

Jamie McCubbin	Solicitor		I support the call for humane treatment of homeless people and for them to be housed in residential accommodation.
Jamie Spurway	Trainer	Spurway Training	Mears and the Home Office have blatantly failed in their duty of care
Jamie Steel	Private Citizen		I'm signing this as I believe every human is deserving of empathy and dignity.
Jamie Wilson	Health and well being worker @ The Marie Trust Homeless Centre		I object to the failings of the home office and treatment of people seeking asylum in this country
Jamie-Lee McNaughton	Private Citizen
Jan Benvie	Private Citizen		all people deserve to be treated with dignity
Jan Killeen	Private Citizen		The the inhuman treatment of refugees in accommodation provided Myers in Glasgow (and elsewhere?) is shocking and must be stopped immediately. The Home Office has neglected its duty of care - clearly failing to monitor any standards that may (or may not)
Jane Clarke	Minister of Religion	Metropolitan Community Church in Glasgow	Because the way we are treating other human beings is not compatible with mt religious beliefs.
Jane Cullingworth	Researcher		Action is needed to prevent such inhumane treatment of human beings
Jane Cunning	Private Citizen		Every human being deserves a chance of a decent life....we can't keep turning our backs on those in need.
Jane Shaw	Retired priest		God expects us to welcome the stranger and show kindness to all
Jane stephenson	Private Citizen		To try to help support refugees
Janet Balneaves	Private Citizen		Housing anyone in a hotel with no allowance like this is bound to lead to problems. I want to see a change to safer housing
Janet Clark	Retired		Good luck
Janet Elizabeth Saunders	Private Citizen		I am appalled to hear of the abysmal conditions that vulnerable asylum seekers are being kept in in Glasgow
Janet Powney	Private Citizen		Mears are behaving in an atrocious way to asylum seekers and those waiting to be rehoused by Glasgow Council. They should be prosecuted under Human Rights Act, for condemning helpless people to insanitary, primitive conditions in order to make huge profit

Janette McGowan	Private Citizen
Janette Swanson	Unison Steward	Glasgow city unison
Janine Calder	Private Citizen	Vegans	Outraged by the inhumane treatment of vulnerable people seeking refuge and asylum.
Jaqueline Creamer	Teacher
Jasparit Kaur Kainth	Customer Service
Jean MacKenzie	Retired school teacher.		Asylum seekers are already traumatised before they even reach the UK. They need to be treated fairly here.
Jean Oliver	Private Citizen		I am simply too outraged for words at the way these vulnerable people have been treated. Malnutrition and bedbugs in Glasgow in 2020!!
Jeffrey Cook-Lundgren	Private Citizen		I support refugees and asylum seekers
Jelina Berlow-Rahman	Partner of Berlow Rahman Solicitors	Berlow Rahman Solicitors	Public inquiry / an official review needs to take place into the serious concerns that has resulted in their deaths.
Jen Anderson	Private Citizen
Jen Kerr	Teacher		Why were people removed from their accommodation at the start of lockdown? I didn't understand it then. And there has to be an enquiry.
Jen Megson	Private Citizen		No human being should be treated this way. I'm ashamed that this is happening in Glasgow
Jen Sweeney	Private Citizen
Jen Thomas	Private Citizen		The treatment of those who have been forced to leave their country is shocking. During a pandemic with fear all around them, trauma from their past experiences that have led to them being in Scotland, the very least they deserve is necessities to live. T
Jeni Bainbridge	Private Citizen
Jenifer Ruth Rankin	Private Citizen		Moral conscience to support decent treatment of human being
Jenni McRae	Private Citizen		we are all human beings and Scotland should be doing much more to welcome and care for asylum seekers
Jennifer Campbell	Staff nurse
Jennifer Eunson	Health Care Professional		.

Jennifer Kyle	Nurse		I fully support this action. Refugees and asylum seekers deserve better.
Jennifer Leyden	Helpdesk Administrator		♡
Jennifer Macphee	Private Citizen
Jennifer McColl	Private Citizen		Everyone deserves to be treated with dignity and respect. Unfortunately this is currently not the experience of asylum seekers here which definitely warrants an investigation.
Jennifer Nevin	Private Citizen
Jennifer Tombe	Private Citizen	Unite Hospitality
Jennifer Wright	Private Citizen		I welcome refugees, I am concerned that their care has been outsourced to a private company whose mission is profit
Jenny Baynes	Full time parent.		The system needs changing. Private companies should be made accountable, they should provide a high level of care for vulnerable citizens to enable them to build a positive life here in Scotland.
Jenny Brownrigg	Private Citizen		I am calling for a public enquiry as this is a case of profit over people's lives.
Jenny Harvie Miller	Private Citizen
Jenny Jamieson	Private Citizen		This situation need not have happened.
Jenny Macdonald	Private Citizen		we need to protect everyone
Jenny Ramsay	Private Citizen
Jerry Eve	Church Minister		give water to the thirsty people who come to you. You people of the land of [Scotland], give food to the refugees (Isaiah 21:14)
Jessica Beagent	Casework Coordinator	Signing as an individual	We as a country must do more to support the most vulnerable people in our communities. Leaving people, who have already experienced extreme trauma, without emotional or material support is beyond unacceptable. I stand with Positive Action to demand a publ
Jessica Bell	Private Citizen
Jessica Duncan	Private Citizen		Blank
Jill De Paolis	Private Citizen		I believe in justice, fairness, paying my taxes and equality
Jill mces	Private Citizen
Jill McLarrie	PATHS programme coordinator	Barnardos
Jill Summers	Private Citizen

Jim Barlow	Parts salesman	SWP Dundee & Unite member	Give asylum refugees a home
Jim MacMillan	Engineer	The Human Race	Justice starts here
Jim Main	Private Citizen
Jo Laidlaw	Private Citizen
Joan Fleming	Private Citizen
joan main	unemployed disabled		People have a right to be treated with respect, especially when they run away in fear from their own country.
Joanna Iannetta	Private Citizen		No human being should have to live like this. Enough is enough.
Joanna Jarvis	Private Citizen		These vulnerable people should not be housed in this way. Many of them have experienced trauma and since arrived in Scotland have experienced more trauma and uncertainty by both the immigration system and the challenges COVID - 19 has brought to everyone.
Joanna MacDonald	Health Care Assistant	NHS
Joanna Robinson	Support Worker	Enable Glasgow	These conditions are not appropriate for people who have asked us for help and need our support. This is Glasgow where we welcome people of all backgrounds. We need to show this.
Joanne Atkinson	Private Citizen		To support the human rights of these asylum seekers
Joanne MacInnes	Director	West London Welcome	This type of accommodation is seen all over the country with contractors taking advantage of the most vulnerable in our society. It must be investigated and the Home Office must suspend all contracts to landlords who do not meet high standards.
Joanne McLeod	Private Citizen		As refugees and asylum seekers are human beings as well and should be treated as such they have been through enough in their own countries never mind getting treated like crap here as well
Joanne Monahan	Teacher		N/a
Jock Morris	Private Citizen	Glasgow Campaign to Welcome Refugees	Mears and Home Office are criminally responsible for deaths, distress and injuries in hotel accommodation. Inquire and keep campaigning.
Jodie Laird	Private Citizen
joe McBride	forklift truck driver		I believe strongly that everyone should be given a chance in life
John Bynorth	Private Citizen		I support anything which raises awareness of the condition that asylum seekers and others who are entering this country from oppressive regimes or war torn states are expected to put up with. A public inquiry would go some way to addressing this situation

John Collings	Private Citizen	The United Reformed Church	It is wrong to fail to treat everyone with respect and dignity
John Connon	Social Worker	UNISON
john dale	Private Citizen		situation in Glasgow is just awful
John duffy	Carer	Local authorities	Its dreadful the conditions that they had to live in
JOHN GERRARD	Private Citizen		THIS IS ALL SHAMEFUL. You have my full support
John Hayes	Private Citizen		Support is clearly needed now in light of recent events
John Hayes	Retired		I want to be proud of my country not ashamed.
John L. Bell	Minister of Religion		It is bad enough that the city has had a past connection with slavery during the 'imperial' era. We cannot regret that and allow in the present day for maltreatment of people some of whom are fleeing the kind of regimes our forbears put in place.
John Mackenzie	Private Citizen
John McFadden	Firefighter	Fire brigades Union	The removal of vulnerable asylum seekers from their accommodation in the midst of a pandemic and without any risk assessment has led to 2 deaths and 6 very serious injuries this must be fully investigated ASAP and those responsible for the failings held a
John Mollins	Private Citizen
John Paul O'Rourke	Private Citizen
John Petrie	Private Citizen
John Porter	Private Citizen
John Raven	Retired		I have read varrious accounts of the situation and met people who have had dealings with those affected
JOhn Stocks	Retired
John Vincent	Private Citizen
Johnstone Macpherson-Stewart	Private Citizen
Jonathan Revie	Private Citizen
Jonathan Whytehead	Heating engineer	AHS
Joshua Brown	Campaigner	Stand Up To Racism	End hotel detention now. Refugees and asylum seekers are welcome here and they must be treated with dignity and respect.
Joy Aiken	Private Citizen		What these people have endured is horrific

Joyce Guthrie	Private Citizen	Quakers	Because everyone deserves fair treatment and respect and these people are victims and have suffered trauma and persecution
Joyce Pountain	Private Citizen		I am very concerned about the lack of care given to those vulnerable people
Judith Carter	Lecturer and In-house Solicitor	Liverpool Law Clinic
Judith Kennon	Nurse	NHS	We have a social and moral obligation to demand a public enquiry into home office failures. Please end hotel detentions now. Please let's provide more and better support for those seeking to make a new home in Scotland
Judith Lois Ashcroft	Teacher
Judith Robinson	Head of Education	Sound and Music
Judith Wilson	Private Citizen
Judith Witts	Retired, private citizen		It behoves us to treat all people decently
Judy Angel	Private Citizen		CEO of Mears - you may think you can escape the consequences of your actions by hiding from public view, and refusing to talk, but believe me, there is a higher eye fixed on you, and believe me the price you will ultimately pay will be catastrophic in you
Judy Wilkinson	Retired		this is terrible and has to stop
Julia Davidson	Private Citizen	Scotland Against Criminalising Communities	After such unnecessary trauma in Glasgow they should all be recompensed with a grant of leave to remain!
Julia Lloyd Walker	Retired		Using unsubstantiated political statements for profit is unforgivable and immoral - Mears, the owners/management and the Home Office should be very very ashamed.
Julia Loecherbach	Private Citizen		this needs investigating
Julia Mckernan	Private Citizen
Julia Modern	Private Citizen
Julia Moreno	Student
Julia Purkiss	Private Citizen		What a shameful way people are being treated - it must stop !
Julian Goodare	Private Citizen
Julianna laird	Private Citizen
Julie McGahan	Private Citizen		I support this enquiry and all of the other measures contained in PAiH's statement.

Juliet Adie	Private Citizen		All human lives are inherently worthy of kindness and protection, even more so if they have suffered great hardship, especially when that hardship has in part been caused by my home country. Refugees are welcome here.
June Hay	Private Citizen		I am very concerned that we are ignoring the plight of the asylum seekers and failing them by disregarding their human rights while Mears group have control
K Mackay	Private Citizen		My knowledge of Mears Group treatment of refugees and asylum seekers prior to recent events was woefully short. Hotel detention, crowding people together, and cutting off already inadequate cash allowances are quite simply methods of dehumanisation in the
Kara tait	Private Citizen		Everyone deserves to be treated the same.
Karen Anne Ewing	Retired Librarian		Wholeheartedly standing with Asylum Seekers and with PAiH in their struggle towards justice, compassion and equality and safe housing for the most vulnerable in our society.
Karen Barker	Support Worker		Need an urgent enquiry into the disgusting way these asylum seekers have been treated
Karen Hutchison	Private Citizen
Karen Lanceley	Private Citizen		This is a tragic and unforgivable situation. The Glasgow refugees are human beings. Remember - as Desmond Tutu said : we are all born in the likeness of God.
Karen leach	Carer		Full ax should be carried out and daily check in with asylum seekers.
Karen Macpherson	Private Citizen
Karen Paula Abrams	Learning Resource Centre Manager		Have courage - you are not alone.
Karla Nolan	Private Citizen		I am signing as I want to support and do as much as I can to help asylum seekers coming here.
Kasia MariaFranczak	Private Citizen		This should never have been allowed to happen - this is no way to treat our brothers and sisters who have been forced to leave their homes and who have been brave enough to try and start new lives here. We stand in solidarity and support with those people
Katarina Boys	Private Citizen
Kate Charlesworth	Private Citizen
Kate Collins	Student	University of Glasgow

Kate Gray	Private Citizen		I am distressed about the conditions asylum seekers in Glasgow are subjected to. These people are vulnerable and need mental and physical help. Glasgow is known as being a welcoming city to all. The recent situation has sadly not reflected that.
Kate Gulliver	Private Citizen		In this new reality within which we now live we must do all we can to ensure everyone is treated with respect and compassion whatever their circumstances.
Kate McGeoch	Private Citizen
Kate Robinson	Private Citizen		Because I want to support refugees in Glasgow
Kate Wilson	Private Citizen		I am appalled at the treatment of asylum seekers in Glasgow, whose lives are being put at risk by the shameful actions of the Home Office and Mears.
Katharine Dickson	Private Citizen
Katherine Mackinnon	Researcher
Katherine Nicol	Private Citizen
Kathleen Crawford	Private Citizen		To support a much needed public enquiry into the structure of the means by which support is delivered to people going through applications for asylum in Scotland. Is the current system fit for purpose.
Kathleen Grieve	Self Employed
Kathleen Higgins	Private Citizen
Kathleen Jenkins	Private Citizen		We don't want to be a society that treats people like this Kathleen paterson	Private Citizen		The home office and Mears need to provide answers and accept responsibility for the deaths their hotel detention project has caused. End hotel detention now.
Kathryn Patton	Private Citizen
Kathryn Pender	Private Citizen
Kathy Galloway	Private Citizen		Because All Lives Matter
Kathy McNeil	retired lecturer		Good luck and hope this makes positive changes to asylum seekers lives
Kati Karki	grower
Katie	Private Citizen		Appalled and embarrassed to read how those seeking asylum in our country are being treated. Scotland can do better.
Katie Boyle	Community Outreach Worker Lighthouse Community Projects	Lighthouse Community Projects

Katie MacLean	Private Citizen
Katie Susan Fish	Private Citizen
Katy Bartholomew	Private Citizen
Katy Hassall	Therapist
Kayleigh Lavornia	Secretary	UNA Glasgow	The sensitive job of refugee housing should not be outsourced to a private, for-profit enterprise.
Keir McGill	Private Citizen
Keir Mckechnie	Mental Health Worker	Stand Up To Racism Scotland	Glasgow says Refugees Are Welcome Here. No more inhumane treatment of refugees by the Home Office. End hotel detentions now.
Keith Boyd	Private Citizen	Activist with Stand up to Racism Glasgow	The appalling treatment of people seeking asylum needs to be investigated and solutions found to achieve the provision of a humane system.
keith logan	Private Citizen		Human rights are for all, especially those who have been treated so badly in their own countries. Scotland prides itself on being kind and open. This is a disgrace.
Keith Mclvor	Private Citizen		Full support!
Keith Wareham	Private Citizen
Kenny Bates	Private Citizen
Kerry Sharkey	Private Citizen		The Home Office isn't fit for purpose and should be taken to court alongside the Mears group for negligence and abuse of human rights.
Kevin Somerville	Private Citizen
Kezia Jay-Lewin	Private Citizen		These are people. They deserve to be treated as such.
Khadija coll	Private Citizen		Better support system for asylumseeker , better accommodation ,education and mental well-being.
Kim Craigie	Secondary Teacher		Because someone needs to speak up for these people. Because it could have been and still could be any of us in their situation.
Kim Hatherley	Nurse
Kiri Catterwell	Student		The current treatment of asylum seekers is inhumane
Kirsteen Mosson	Private Citizen		Solidarity with the cause
Kirsten Atherton	Private Citizen
Kirsten Abioye	Systems Administrator		The treatment of refugees here is absolutely harrowing. They are humans, and this is inhumane. We have to do better.
Kirsty Blair	Home maker		Glasgow Welcomes Refugees & Wishes All the Safety and Care They Deserve

Kirsty Ellen	Private Citizen		The Home Office and Mears group have a duty of care to asylum seekers. Their actions leading up to recent events in Glasgow must be open to public scrutiny and they should be held accountable for their actions.
Kirsty Flett	Private Citizen		To support all those displaced communities around the world.
Kirsty McAlonan	PM		Best of luck.
Kirsty McKechnie	Private Citizen
Kirsty McKee	Bartender		I am not happy with treatment of Asylum Seekers who have come here to have a better experience, and are then not treated humanely.
Kirsty pollock	Dance teacher / mother		Because I disagree with the treatment of refugees in Glasgow and other parts of the country during the Corona outbreak and before
Kirsty Turkington	Student and care worker	University of Highlands and Islands
Kitty Alvarez	Private Citizen
Kooj Chuhan	Director	Metacceptive Projects and Media
Kristin Barrett	Private citizen and supporter of PAIH		How we treat asylum-seekers is a measure of our humanity. And entrusting our asylum-seekers to Mears' care is obviously not working well. Surely we can do better than that?
kristin mojsiewicz	Private Citizen		i don't want my city or my country to treat people, who most need our help, like this
Kristy Duff	Private Citizen
L Day	Private Citizen
Laura Benedetti	Customer services assistant	Glasgow hotel asylum seekers	The way asylum seekers and refugees are being treated needs to stop why I'm signing this
Laura Bennison	Private Citizen		This is a human rights issue, I am appalled by how these people are being treated here in Glasgow.
Laura Černis	Private Citizen
Laura Chimimba	Private Citizen		Society is built on how it treats our most vulnerable. Mears have proven that they are purely driven by profit. Disgusting treatment of each person affected
Laura Digan	Trainee Minister
Laura Gardner	Student		Everybody should be able to live comfortably, especially in Glasgow where I believe we should be welcoming to everybody. I send love and support to asylum seekers here.

Laura Guy	Research Fellow	Newcastle University
laura jane wilkie	Music Teacher
Laura MacPherson Zieger	Student
Laura McMahan	Private Citizen		Nobody should have to live in the conditions that asylum seekers are forced into after having to flee their homes.
Laura McMonagle	Private Citizen
Laura Mehrpouya	Private Citizen
Laura Mustian	Bookseller		With every good wish
Laura Pollock	Private Citizen		Disgusted at the mistreatment and neglect of asylum seekers by the mears group which should not be ignored and allowed
Laura Shanahan	Private Citizen		I was shocked to learn how people are being treated and I would like people already in terrible circumstances to get the support they need.
Laura Simpson	Solicitor	Govan Law Centre
Laura Stewart	Training and Support Worker	Social Bite
Laura Wignall	Private Citizen
Lauren Belcher	Private Citizen		I am appalled at the despicable treatment these vulnerable people have been subjected to. It's a disgrace that the Mears group are offering up such subhuman living and eating arrangements.
Lauren Clarke	Private Citizen		The question of a person's right to legally remain within the UK does not and should not put their human rights and their needs as people in question. The conditions faced by these asylum seekers is terrible and without doubt damaging to mental health. Re
Lauren Fox-McLoughlan	Private Citizen
Lauren Hannan	Private Citizen		Asylum seekers have been mistreated for years and deserve our respect, love and care. Everyone has the right to safe accommodation, just as everyone has the right to safety from persecution
Lawrence Berry	Web Developer
Lawrence Murphy	Private Citizen		Humanity!
layla-roxanne hill	Private Citizen
Lea Cowan	Private Citizen

Lee paterson	Maintenance staff		To help people
Lee Pollock	Private Citizen		Asylum seekers deserve respect, dignity and compassion anything less is shameful.
Leigh Robieson-Cleaver	Private Citizen		Everyone deserves fair treatment and justice. We are all equal.
Leilani Rabemananjara	Private Citizen
Lesley robertson	Private Citizen
Lesley Stirton	Private Citizen		Asylum seekers should be treated humanely. I support these demands as I believe the lack of due care/basic rights afforded to asylum seekers needs to be corrected and proper scrutiny/justice afforded to those affected by way of an independent enquiry.
Lia Dmitrieva	outreach worker	Positive Action in Housing
liam khan	BAME CDW	Yorkshire MESMAC	over the years I have work with Asylum seekers I seemed never to be shocked at how bad they can be treat and marginalised. i show support to all people fleeing truma and conflict and strive for more understanding from the services that should support them
Liana Romaniuk	Private Citizen
Liane Coia	Administration Manager	Maryhill Integration Network	Those of us working to support asylum seekers have long been appalled by their treatment from the Home Office in general and the actions of Mears Group PLC and their predecessors Serco and immediately voiced our concerns over the forced removal of people
Liberty Hampton	Student		Because it's human rights
Lillian Rooney	Lecturer		human rights, decency and integrity for all those seeking asylum
Lily Brauhnoltz	Private Citizen		Contracting-out the provision of asylum seekers accommodation should never result in a lower standard of human rights protection for individuals. The Home Office AND Mears Group must be held accountable for the failure to carry out their duties to protect
Linda Alexander	Private Citizen		I struggle to understand why people living in housing were removed in the first place, let alone treated so unkindly in the process. It's time to treat people as we expect to be treated. People, not commodities, criminals or chancers. Absolute power cor

Linda Archbold	Private Citizen		These refugees have invariably been already been through harrowing situations and are already vulnerable. They need support not exploited by so called socially responsible company's such as Mears Group.
Linda Darby	Mental Health Practitioner	NHS Trust homeless and new arrivals team	All asylum seekers in the UK that have been placed in hotels are experiencing extra difficulty with their mental health, on top of any distress caused by their past experiences. Not all of those experiencing distress have access to mental health support
Linda hardie	Garden Support worker		I support this as I don't believe in marginalisation We're one group of people are put together as second-class citizens
Linda Murison	Private Citizen
Lindsay Greenhorn	Private Citizen		Violation of human rights for asylum seekers !
Lindsay Mann	Private Citizen		I am appalled at the plight of asylum seekers who have been treated so badly by the Mears group. It is in breach of their human rights, and it shames me that our country - the 5th richest in the world - thinks it is acceptable to treat people, looking f
Lindsey Duncan	Project Coordinator, Urban Roots	Urban Roots	Everyone deserves to be treated with common decency and to have their basic needs met. It is a disgrace that some of the most vulnerable and traumatised people in our city are being abused in this way. Mears must be held to account.
Lindsey Duncan	Private Citizen		Asylum seekers deserve to be treated with common humanity: clean accommodation, decent food and access to essential medical care is the least we can offer to vulnerable & traumatized people. Mears & the HO have clearly failed to fulfil basic duty of care &
Lisa McCartney	Mother	Common Weal	I care about life
Lisa Moynes	Marketing Manager
lisa smith	Private Citizen		It is an absolute disgrace that people are being forced to live like this
Lisella Hutton	Private Citizen		To support the campaign
Liz Armitage	Private Citizen
Liz Gibson	Food Grower & ordained Minister Private Citizen		We need to treat people as we would want to be treated ourselves.
Liz Macdonald	Private Citizen

Liz Paterson	Private Citizen		We need to work together to make Scotland a place of hospitality and sanctuary
Lorna Davidson	Private Citizen		Appalled at how refugees have been treated
Lorna Kay	Private Citizen
Lorna Logan	Investment manager	Stewart investors	Asylum seekers in Scotland are being treated like animals and it is unforgivable.
Lorraine Coleman	Teacher		Everyone should know about the barbarism of borders and the UK's hostile environment, so we can continue to fight to end both, together
Lorraine McKelvey	Post office assistant		I believe people who are in Scotland seeking asylum should be cared for by a non profit organisation who provides much better accommodation and support to these individuals
Lorraine Wheelan	Coordinator	Lochaber Supports Supports Refugees	Because these people are needing proper homes, somewhere they can feel safe and secure. We are letting them down, they have difficult backgrounds and need social and psychological support.
Lotte Helm	Private Citizen		To seek justice for all those asylum seekers that are still and in future will be dependent on Mears and Home Office support and have not received adequate support and treatment.
Louise Baird-Smith	Private Citizen		To improve living conditions
Louise Hunter	Private Citizen		The way that many refugees and asylum seekers have been treated in Glasgow during the COVID 19 crisis in particularly is absolutely abhorrent and there must be a public inquiry to hold those accountable. People DOES NOT equal profit yet reports coming fro
Louise Logan	Private Citizen		Mears must be held accountable for their failure to adequately care for those in hotel detention. The reports of the conditions endured by people who have been forced to flee war or persecution are appalling. There must be an inquiry, and people entering
Louise Mackellar	Lecturer in Social Work	Glasgow Caledonian University	The longstanding UK Government hostile environment policy has seen asylum seekers being denied basic rights and protections. This must be challenged and the openly racist hostile environment policy scrapped.
Louise McLellan	Private Citizen
Louise White	Freelance Court Reporter

Lucy Corbishley	School Project Manager		All people deserve respect and dignity. End hotel detention now.
Lucy Duncombe	Private Citizen
Lucy Hughes	Private Citizen		The hostile environment is a cruel and racist system that kills vulnerable people who have come to the UK to seek a better life. All refugees and asylum seekers are welcome here and we must challenge the inhumane actions of the Home Office.
Lucy Killoran	Private Citizen
Lucy Mack	Private Citizen
Lucy Paton	Private Citizen
Lucy Petersen	Private Citizen
Luisa Casasanta	Private Citizen
Luiz Cristiano Freire de Souza	Intersectional Project Support Officer
Lusi Alderslowe	Permaculture Educator		.
Lyn Bastekin	Private Citizen
Lynda Kirkpatrick	School support assistant	South Lanarkshire Council	Please act now to help desperate asylum seekers in Glasgow.
Lynn Cook	Private Citizen	Unison
Lynn Murphy	Lecturer		I am extremely concerned for the wellbeing of every resident, living under prison-like conditions during this most precarious time. It is inhumane to give people no means of respite or financial independence and remove them from support groups.
Lynn Phillips	Private Citizen		I am shocked at the conditions these vulnerable refugees are facing. These people have already lost their livelihoods and homes, they should not be suffering anymore in our so called country of refuge.
Lynn Russell	Private Citizen
Lynnda	Programme Manager	Interfaith Glasgow	Our Weekend Club project supports asylum seekers and refugees and we are deeply concerned about their treatment at this time. This is not the kind of welcome that Glasgow should be showing 'New Scots'
Lynne Barty	Private Citizen		I support this request
M Hughson	Private Citizen
M-A Cockburn	kinship carer		Keep telling these truths, loudly, few others seem to.
M-A Cockburn	Appalled Private Citizen		I cannot believe 'The Meedja' has not bellowed this story from the rooftops again and again. Treating people who are escaping from war, violence, harm or injustice in such a shameful way, is not the Scottish tradition.

Maddie Roberts	Student	University of Manchester	I fully support this
Maddy Crowther	Co-Executive Director	Waging Peace
Madeleine Roy	Private Citizen		We all have a duty of care to each other.
Magda Ang	Lecturer	City of Glasgow college	So many of my asylum seeker and refugee students work hard to acquire language and IT skills to enable their inclusion And contribution in Scottish culture and society. They already have so many other skills to offer us. Why are we making it so hard to ac
Maggie Cook	Trade Union Facility Time	UNISON
Maggie Grant	Private Citizen
Maggie McGinley	Teacher	Stand Up To Racism Glasgow	Refugees are welcome here and need to be treated with kindness and support- not abandoned.
Maggie Pollok	Private Citizen
Magnus Kramers	Private Citizen
Malcolm Crosby	Private Citizen		This treatment is appalling and needs to be publicised
Maliha Asif Mir	Private Citizen
mandy purkiss	Private Citizen		Asylum seekers should be treated with dignity and respect.
Margaret Amer	Retired
Margaret Baxter	Retired		Please please help the refugees to have a better life here in Scotland providing good accommodation where they are able to begin to live free from the trauma of their past and make a life for themselves here 🙏🙏
Margaret Bradshaw	Private Citizen		Humanity should be respectful, not reprehensible.
Margaret Fisher	Private Citizen		We all deserve a safe and secure home
Margaret Fitzpatrick	Private Citizen
Margaret Gray	Private Citizen
Margaret Hayes	Ex teacher		Every life matters and cannot begin to imagine the effect on mental being held in these hotels during Lockdown.
Margaret Henderson	Former Chair of Glasgow Night Shelter for Destitute Asylum Seekers	Many destitute asylum seekers	Asylum seekers are just like you and me except that they have been through traumas. We must respect and support them, not continue to traumatise them here.
Margaret Lachlan	Private Citizen		people must be treated as people not dehumanised and left with nothing.
Margaret McCormack	Private Citizen

Margaret mcsharry	Private Citizen		I am disgusted at the way these people are being treated
Margaret Ross Sloan Paterson	Private Citizen		As a Glasgow resident I am ashamed that this is happening in our city.
margaret Roy	Private Citizen		horrified AT HOW WE ARE TREATING OTHE RHUMAN BEINGS.
Margaret Woods	Private Citizen		I believe that people should have freedom of movement about the world as a human right and I believe that people seeking safety from war,famine,torture and persecution as well as climate disasters and other dangers and misfortunes under the the Geneva Con
Margot Sagan	Head Teacher retired		It is vital that an investigation is carried out regarding the action of Mears Group which resulted in the death of 2 mentally ill asylum seeking men in Glasgow.
Mari Borland	Private Citizen		The way these people are being treated is inhumane
Maria Hughes	Private Citizen
Maria Montinaro	Private Citizen		Jeremiah 22V3, 13-17 Micah 6v8 Hosea 6v6 May God Bless this petition and all your endeavours.
Mariam ashraf	Private Citizen
Marie Andres	NHS Health care assistant		We need to speak out and stand up to support anyone whose basic human rights are not being met
Marie Dunlop	Relief unit assistant	Representing myself only	I support those who seek to rescue, support and protect refugees.
Marie McGuire	I am currently self employed as a domestic cleaner.		I think it is outrageous the way Assylum seekers are being treated in Britain and in particular in Glasgow and Hope that a full enquiry is made so that they can get proper help in the future.
Marie Murray	Private Citizen		Appalling treatment of those who need our help the most. This is an inditement on Scottish society. As has been formally said, a society is judged by how it treats its most vulnerable citizens!
Marie-Anne Hutchison	Teacher		Peoples's basic human rights are being denied. Scotland has to act on this.
Marion bryans	Private Citizen		We must support people who have come here seeking safety . They are our family too
Marion Robertson	Private Citizen		I believe Scotland & Glasgow should reject the way asylum seekers in the city have been treated since the Home Office "accommodated" them here under the care of the Mears Group. Glasgow City Council should assume responsibility for these maltreated indivi

Mark Bitel	Private Citizen		We must treat asylum seekers and refugees better. The UK Government's hostile environment shouldn't be tolerated either side of the Scotland/England border.
Mark Henderson	Private Citizen		We are all equal and should be treated as such. The fear & intimidation needs to stop.
Mark Langdon	Activist	The SANE Collective	The continual mistreatment of those in the asylum system must end immediately. It is in every way a crime against humanity.
Mark Newman	Private Citizen
Marquita S	Community Worker		for humanity
Marta Duque	Private Citizen
Martha simms	Gardener		We don't have the death sentence, we condemn countries who do as barbaric, our laws say that everyone has the right to a fair trial. This person didn't have a trial, but they were handed the death sentence. Death sentence without a trial. We clearly have
Martin Kayes	Private Citizen		The home office treatment of refugees is de-humanising .
martin law	Private Citizen		how this country treats migrants and refugees is a disgrace and i want it to change
Martin Mansell	Private Citizen	Quakers	I think the council should take over the accommodation
Martin Wilkinson	Private Citizen		It appears there may have been careless negligence that put vulnerable people at risk.
Mary Bainbridge	Depute headteacher
Mary Barron	Primary Teacher		Seeking asylum is a right. Many countries have histories of emigration,we need to put ourselves in the shoes of others. It could be us tomorrow. A big welcome to all migrants.
Mary Brennan	Private Citizen
Mary Bullough	Private Citizen
Mary Chau	Money Skills Officer	Positive Action In Housing	Please treat people with respect. Too many who come to this country have already faced great difficulties and hardships.
Mary Holt	Private Citizen		Requires scrutiny & fundamental change
Mary Jo Furlong	Social Worker/ MHO		To support asylum seekers in Glasgow and ensure a public enquiry is open into the treatment of Mears organisation.
Mary MacDonald	Retired
Mary Margaret Agbo	Retired		I think it's disgraceful how asylum seekers are being treated . I know many indigenous Scots don't understand or believe. Some think shelter and breakfast is more than enough and these remarks sicken and worry me. People who are normally "kind" yet can be Mary McManus	Private Citizen		These are individuals with an inherent right to be treated as human beings

Mary Morton	Retired		.
Mary Scrimgeour	CLD Worker		The treatment of assylim seekers in this country is appalling. We need to support them better. I truely hope there is an open and honest investigation
Mary Veronica Colin	Private Citizen		Because I am horrified by the conditions experienced by refugees and want to help,
Mary Woodward	Private Citizen		Asylum seekers have already suffered horribly before reaching the UK: it is outrageous that they have to suffer further at the hands of the country to whom they fled for help
Maryanne Patience	Retired
Matthew Waites	Private Citizen
Maud Gorissen	Private Citizen		-
Maureen Anderson	Private Citizen		.
Maureen Hutchison	Private Citizen		Because I firmly believe in getting this shambles with Mears sorted out
Maureen McBride	Researcher	University of Glasgow
Maureen Watson	Private Citizen		The inhumanity and callous greed of those running society beggars belief. The desperate plight of asylum seekers in Glasgow is the direct result of the actions of our government and those elites they represent.
Maureen Waugh	Private Citizen
May Lockhart	Private Citizen		Na
Maya Parish	Teacher	Glasgow city coucil
Maya Petersen	Private Citizen
Maya Stewart	Private Citizen
Meg Bateman	University lecturer		to support the human dignity of refugees
Meg Thomas	Social Worker		It is imperative that we create an immediate safe environment for all those displaced recently and support them to recover from this additional trauma in an already severely traumatised life.
Megan Bottino	Private Citizen
Megan Davies	Private Citizen

Megan Tailford	Private Citizen		Companies should be held accountable for subjecting people to horrific conditions in the pursuit of profit
Melanie McIntosh	Private Citizen
Melissa McGinley	BMS	NHS	We demand justice and accountability
Melody Whitley	Private Citizen	H4TH help for the homeless p	The treatment of the asylum seekers in glasgow has been appalling and I believe was instamental in the breakdown in mental health .which in turn I believe caused last Fridays Tragic events which were totally avoidable if people had been treated with digni
Mhairi Borland	Private Citizen
Michael Breare Taylor, and Christine Mary Kathleen Taylor	Retired GP & Retired RGN		We believe in the Brotherhood of man and the equality of all
Michael de Klerk	Monastic Cellarer		Please let compassion prevail.
michael kane	Student		lack of support from government nd society to the most vulnerable of society
Michael Kinsella	Private Citizen	Local Authority
Michael Nightingale	Private Citizen
Michelle Dearie	Private Citizen
Michelle Lowe	Private Citizen		I am appalled to learn that vulnerable human beings are being treated In Scotland. Asylum seekers deserve our welcome and care and support, not to be further traumatised and mistreated in our "civilised"country
Mike Arnott	Secretary, Dundee Trades Union Council	Dundee Trades Union Council	Our asylum seekers deserve answers.
Mike Orr	Private Citizen
Millie	Private Citizen		We need to help in anyway we can!
Mira Waligora	Private Citizen		Because everyone deserves humane treatment
Miranda Barty-Taylor	Private Citizen		People, not profit. Shame on those who allow this to happen or turn a blind eye.
Miranda Burke	Private Citizen
Miriam Beeks	Doctor	Medical Justice	The care of asylum seekers should be taken out of private hands and given to Glasgow City Council
Miriam howie	Unemployed	Humanity	Treat people as you want to be treated
Mirjam Twigt	Postdoctoral fellow		Because humanity should always prevail over profit
Mirren Buchanan	Private Citizen

Miss Luisa Menoni	Private Citizen		N/a
Miss M Prideaux	Retired nurse		Disgracefull that asylem seekers have not the money to top up their phones or buy sanitary products
Mohammad Asif	Chair	Afghan Human Rights Foundation	We demand a public inquiry
Moira Crawford	Retired		We must treat asylum seekers in a fair, civilised and kind way
Moira Harris	Private Citizen
Moira Walker	Private Citizen
mollie eadsforth	student at university of manchester	university of manchester HCRI department
Molly Park	Private Citizen		These asylum seekers/refugees are real people and need to be treated with respect. We should be welcoming and supporting
Monica Malcolm	Private Citizen	East DumbartonRefugee action Group	It is shameful the way these people are being treated.
Monique Campbell	Private Citizen
Morag Balfour	Private Citizen
Morag Halliday	Private Citizen		Barbaric treatment of human beings. Only reason Mears Group moved Assylam Seekers to hotels was for their own purposes. No proper assessment of individuals needs was carried out and some were removed from their homes/ accommodation in the early hours of t
Morag Macpherson	Private Citizen
Morag Wells	Arts worker		This horrendous situation deserves a public inquiry and the immediate end to hotel detention with suitable alternative accommodation provided.
Morna McMurtry		Milk Cafe Glasgow	For too long the home office have been allowed to deliver substandard living conditions to vulnerable people that deserve our help and support and at the very least they deserve basic human rights and protection. The way they have been treated by the Home
Morven Alice MacSwan		United Nations House Scotland	Because basic human rights have been stripped from these individuals
Mr Arthur C Nicoll	IT Officer (Local Govt)	Dundee City UNISON (personal capacity)	These are Human refugees. They deserve dignity, like everyone else.
Mr Darren Chapman	Private Citizen

Mrs Ann Forsyth	Private Citizen		The humane treatment of all people who turn to us looking for help is a basic human right. We must welcome refugees and asylum seekers and treat them kindly! It is shocking that so much bad treatment is tolerated, and hidden away from the ordinary citizen
Mrs Mary Lomas	Private Citizen		I am a volunteer at a local food bank which is linked to a Caritas project which supports refugees and asylum seekers there are various programmes to help them feel welcome and support them in various ways.
Mrs N Anwar	Private Citizen
Muhammed Zhen Khan	Private Citizen		Refugees are human being too. They deserve the same level of basic dignity and respect that we take for granted!
Mumtaz	SCW		United
Myriam Mouflih	Private Citizen
N Ferguson	Private Citizen		This country is made up almost entirely of refugees and asylum seekers from generations ago. My family came seeking asylum 120 years ago and are now valued members of society. How hypocritical and cynical of the present government to treat today's asylum
N Hussein	Artist		In solidarity with all refugees and asylum seekers searching for a safe, and welcoming environment.
Nadia Stuart	Private Citizen		End hotel detention now. End the hostile environment. No-one is illegal. Solidarity and love to those seeking protection. You are welcome here.
Nadine Gorency	Private Citizen
Nadine McElhinney	Private Citizen		Human rights
Najimee Parveen	Director	PATH (Scotland)	We add our voice to PAiH and all those seeking an inquiry into the Mears Group who failed on many counts. We are particularly concerned that no vulnerability risk assessments were carried out.
Naomi Cairns	Private Citizen
Naomi Croft	Student
Naomi Head	University lecturer
Naomi Junnor	Social work Care Manager	Unison	All humans deserve dignity and respect. Especially those denied a future by the effects of colonial behaviours either military or environmentally damaging.

Naomi Masila	Social Worker		We need to treat our vulnerable people with kindness and compassion
Natalia coppel	Social Worker
Natalia Equihua	Communications Worker
Natalie Marr	Student	University of Glasgow
Natalie Walters	Private Citizen
Natasha Alkaff Day	Volunteer with refugees, and asylum seekers
Nathalie Belcher	Teacher		This shouldn't be allowed to happen to people. It's in humane.
Nathaniel Walpole	Artist
Neil Barnes	Private Citizen		Treating the most vulnerable people with dignity, respect and fulfilling their human rights is the mark of a true caring society. I believe most Scottish people are on that path but many individuals and organisations have a long way to go. I want to do m
Neil Hamlet	Consultant in Public Health Medicine	Myself as a expert in health and homelessness in Scotland	I salute the advocacy work being done for the most excluded in our society.
Neil mcguire	Private Citizen
Neil McKechnie	Private Citizen
Neil Slattery	Private Citizen
Niall Christie	Private Citizen		Solidarity with Glasgow's asylum seekers
Niamh Adams McGilp	Student
Niamh Coffey	Private Citizen		Refugees do not deserve to be put at additional risk due to incompetence, laziness, and racism. Nor does the general public. We have to stop what we have seen at Mclays and Park Inn happening again.
Niamh McGuire	Student
Nicholas Domminney	Lecturer		I support the demand for an inquiry into the treatment of asylum seekers by Mears Group at the behest of the Home Office and that, meanwhile, asylum seekers have their daily allowance restored and that they are returned safely to their Glasgow homes from
Nicholas Morris	Private Citizen		I am appalled at the way asylum seekers in Glasgow have been treated and shocked that Mears can fail so badly to treat those they have chosen to take responsibility for so badly.
Nicky Bolland	Private Citizen

Nicky Kelly	Doctor
Nicky Melville	Private Citizen
Nicola Baxter	Private Citizen		I want justice for all people as equals, the atrocities put upon them shouldn't happen to anyone
Nicola Campbell	Private Citizen
Nicola Crawford	Children's Reporter
Nicola Reid	Private Citizen		People deserve to be treated equally. Asylum seekers are human beings who need help, shelter, the right to work and deserve dignity and respect.
Nicolas Le Bigre	Private Citizen
Nicole Loen	Customer Solution Advisor for Caledonia Housing Association
Nicoline Kure	Working with asylum seekers		To uphold the dignity of asylum seekers and challenge abuses to people's rights.
Niki Logan	Community Development Worker	Linkes [SCIO]	The UK Asylum process is inhumane. The recent incident was heartbreaking and arguably preventable - vulnerable people, under immense strain, in difficult temporary living conditions, lacking control over how and when their basic needs could be met and mis
Nikki Ford	Private Citizen		.
Nikki Harvey	Private Citizen		I am extremely concerned about the treatment of asylum seekers in hotels at this time.
Nina Stewart	Private Citizen		The treatment of asylum seekers has been uncaring, unkind, inhumane and dangerous. I believe that this deserves to an enquiry and to prevent it happening again and in other places.
Norah Adeyemo	Private Citizen
Norma Campbell	Private Citizen		I think it is absolutely appalling that people seeking asylum are being so badly and inhumanely treated
Nuala Patton	Private Citizen
Oliver Robertson	Private Citizen		Time for the home office to take responsibility for the failure of outsourcing their duty of care for refugees to private companies.
Olivia Errey	Private Citizen		Respect of human rights is essential
Olivia Wu	Private Citizen
Omar Jawhar Omar	Student

Oonagh Duffy	Private Citizen		To support those who are being treated unfairly in our city
Oriole Hall	Private Citizen	Inverness Quakers	I am appalled at the treatment of those who have gone through such suffering to reach safety.
Orla Craig	Private Citizen
Orla Hamill	Private Citizen
Pam Wardell	Retired radio producer and educator		In total support of your efforts to demand just and humane changes to the present home office inadequacies.
Pamela Chambers	Retired		I support the action of PAIH.
Pamela Davie	Civil Servant		-
Pamela Duffin	Residential Property Assistant		Deeply concerned about the well being of those in our city seeking asylum
Paolo Sanguigni	Private Citizen		For fair treatment for all. Can't welcome refugees into this country and then leave them homeless and or nowhere for them to stay
Parvin Jussab	Analyst	Humans	British values need to be upheld
Pasquale Andrea Rossi	Private Citizen		We need clarity around this tragedy, to get better at giving support to those who need help. We are better than what we have shown; let's get better together.
Pat Stocker	Private Citizen		How totally shameful that asylum-seekers, refugees and other really vulnerable human beings - our guests and our brothers and sisters - should be treated like unwanted animals by Britain's Government. My solidarity and heartfelt warmth goes to each perso
Patricia A. Bryden	Private Citizen		Human rights abuses and racism are totally unacceptable
Patricia Carberry	Private Citizen		The current situation for asylum seekers in Glasgow is completely inhumane.
Patricia Cassidy	Retired teacher		Asylum seekers are treated shamefully by the UK government. Herding people into detention hotels and denying them the meagre allowance that is their due as well as ignoring their health needs is completely incomprehensible.
Patricia Gale	Psychotherapist
Patricia Mayborne	Carer		You are seen, you are heard and you matter!
Patricia McRobbie	Psychotherapist	Private citizen	Everyone has the right to be treated as a human being.
Patricia Rogers	Private Citizen	Quakers	Heard accounts of the terrible situation through Interfaith Scotland. If we are a civilised society we should welcome asylum seekers with compassion and care and offer a place of safety and comfort, bearing in mind the trauma that has led them to flee the Patricia Smith	Private Citizen	Positive Action in Housing	Shocking treatment of asylum seekers in Glasgow. How could we treat human beings like this in the heart of our city?

Patrick Welsh	Private Citizen
Paul Archer	Private Citizen		I am appalled at the lack of care and support provided to asylum seekers.
Paul Givan	Private Citizen		As a society we are judged on how we treat with the most unfortunate
Paul Johnston	Private Citizen
Paul Roberts	Private Citizen		As people have died as a result of the Mears group failings in Glasgow. And public money was given to this group to provide a service to the state then a public inquiry should establish why a private company has failed in its duty of care to the people th
Paul Sweeney	Former MP for Glasgow North East	Labour Party	Fully support calls for a public enquiry into asylum accommodation.
Paula Grant	Private Citizen
Paula Telfer	Private Citizen		Get profiteering Mears out of Scotland
Pauline	Teacher
Pauline Lynch	Private Citizen		Because all people need to be treated with respect and care.
PaulMacNeil	Private Citizen		To get people justice and change the way things are done, ie; Holding the Mears Group to account.
Penelope Veitch	Private Citizen
Penny Bennetts	Private Citizen		Yes investigate but in the mean time give the residents a decent level of food, medical care, and ways to keep themselves and the rooms clean and pleasant.
Penny Gray	Asylum Hosting volunteer	Bristol Hospitality Network	The treatment of the asylum seekers in Glasgow has been atrocious, moved from stable, available accommodation with financial support into hotels without money. Mears and the Home Office have paid no attention to people's wellbeing and welfare in this lock
Penny Jane Holmes	Private Citizen
Penny Lilley	Private Citizen	I am a Quaker	I think it is appalling the way the home office and this private company (Mears) has treated asylum seekers.

Penny Waterhouse	Private Citizen		Thank you PAIH for doing this. The hostile environment continues in England. Please do what you can to make it stop in Scotland.
Perdita Mary Heller	Private Citizen/Foster Carer		To expose those that profit from vulnerable people
Peter David Rees	Private Citizen
Peter Docherty	Director	Docherty consulting	I fully support your campaign to end this tragedy. Please let me know if I can help.
Peter Hutchison	Retired GP		I am shocked and ashamed of how we are failing these vulnerable people.
Peter Lavelle	Private Citizen		People seeking refuge deserve so much better...
Peter Limbrick	Principal	Interconnections	I would like to restore a sense of humanity in the UK
Peter Lloyd	Chair	Scottish Refugee Council	Unless there is a thorough independent investigation with the causes identified and effective action taken to address them, then things will not change and we will witness further tragedies.
Peter Mullan	Filmmaker		Asylum seekers deserve respect , dignity and compassion. Anything less shames us.
Peter William Gatrell	Private Citizen
Peter Wyatt	Psychotherapist
Philip Harris	Retired scientist		Like the virus these matters do not just away: need ceaseless work and vigilance as in Positive Action.
Philipa Craig	Student nurse
Philippa Kemp	Office and Comms Manager	Multi-Cultural Family Base	We fully support this inquiry
Phillida Ball	Private Citizen		Because I am am very distressed to hear about the appalling housing conditions and lack of support of the asylum seekers being housed by Mears.
Pinar aksu	Private Citizen	Human Rights activist	Human rights for all. No one should be left in isolation
Prisca Lawrence	Sales Advisor - Call Centre		I believe asylum seekers deserve the chance to live and work in the UK
Rachael Esdale	Director		We are able to do so much better for people.
Rachael McQueen	Private Citizen
Rachel Brennan	Private Citizen		People come here looking for help. Do you think they want to leave their homes, their lands, their loved ones? Our war mongering has left them no option but to flee and we welcome them with what? shit housing, an abusive system to negotiate, fees they ca

Rachel Fawthrop	Private Citizen
Rachel Frith	Private Citizen
Rachel Knox Anderson	Administrator		We need answers - how the abhorrent treatment of human beings in Glasgow has been allowed. This cannot continue.
Rachel Lambe	Private Citizen
rachel mccann	Private Citizen
RACHEL MEACH	Researcher		I am signing to add my support for the campaign for an enquiry into the failure of Mears and the Home Office to look after some of the most vulnerable people in our society. I believe they should both be held accountable for the failure to provide both a
Rachel Nicholson	Student
Rachel Rogers	Private Citizen		Scotland can do better! We need a human response to support our asylum seekers - not a 'put-up' and 'shut-up' attitude. We can do better!
Rachel Smith	Senior Lecturer		It's been months now that PAIH and many others have been warning of the problems and dangers associated with the situation of asylum seekers who have been moved from self contained accommodation into hotels with utterly inadequate financial and medical su
Rachel Walker	Private Citizen		Asylum seekers are human beings
Rachel Wilson	Musician
Raheema Sayed	Private Citizen
Rani Dhanda	Private Citizen		I'm angry. People should not have been taken out of their homes
Rayah Feldman	Private Citizen
Raymie Kiernan	Private Citizen	Stand Up To Racism	End the hostile environment
Razgar HASSAN	Office Manager	positive Action in Housing
Rebecca Ray	Author		A civilization is judged by how it treats its weakest. Unless all of us are free, none of us are free.
Rebecca	Private Citizen		They have been treated terribly
Rebecca Hughes	Full time mother and mental health sufferer		These people are living through horrible circumstances after fleeing worse in their home countries. I want my country to make asylum seekers feel welcome and safe.
Rebecca Kay	Private Citizen		This is a shameful way to treat human beings.
Rebecca Mair	Private Citizen

Rebecca Robinson	Private Citizen
Rebecca Scott	Private Citizen		Lessons learned sadly too late for all victims but let's improve our compassion
Rebecca Welsh	Private Citizen
Rebecca Woodward	Private Citizen
Ren Wednesday	Private Citizen		Refugees and asylum seekers deserve better. They deserve a safe and sanitary place to live, independence, healthcare and respect. The problem goes far beyond Mears, but right now they are endangering people's lives and they need to be held accountable.
Rev David McLachlan	Church of Scotland Minister		Appalled at these events. Disgusted by the action of the Home Office
Rev Dr Iain and Rev Isabel Whyte	Rev	Iona Community	We are appalled at the inhumanity to vulnerable people shown by the Home Office and Mears Hotel group and wish to see a full investigation and a radical change. We fully support PAIH in their call and their critical emergency support.
Rev. Linda M. Haggerstone	Interfaith Officer and Chaplain	Scottish Pagan Federation	I continue to be appalled by the inhumane and life-threatening neglect Mears and the Home Office perpetrates on asylum seekers and refugees who are in desperate need of our help. Shame on Mears and the UK government.
Revd John Nugent	Minister of Religion		It is always best to err on the side of love. Anyone who doesn't feel for asylum seekers has no soul.
Rhianne Carroll	Private Citizen
Rhona Lattka	Private Citizen
Rhona McInnes	Private Citizen		A public inquiry is needed. Meats must be called to account for the unacceptable treatment of asylum seekers
Rhona Raeburn	Private Citizen		Mears need to be sacked. They are misusing public money and abusing vulnerable people.
Richa Okhandiar-MacDougall	Private Citizen
Richard Barry	Private Citizen
Richard Dunn	Private Citizen	Chiltern Peace & Justice Group	A disgusting way to treat refugees/asylum seekers
Richard Haley	Private Citizen	SACC	Decent conditions for asylum-seekers right now. And a public inquiry as soon as it can be set up.
Richard Kinsella	Designer	Stand up to Racism
Richard Manning	Private Citizen		Anti corruption safeguarding

Rick Rijdsdijk	Private Citizen		keep strong
Riffit khan	Pharmacist manager
Rinna Väre	Private Citizen
Rishi Kalanke	Accommodation Provider	Principal Dwellings Ltd
Rob Leech	Private Citizen		I am disgusted that my country, the UK, treats often traumatised people in the way that Glasgow and Mears treats asylum seekers. The board of Mears should face criminal charges.
Robert Anderson	L&D Trainer
Robert Buntin	Private Citizen		Asylum seekers and refugees were subjected to violence, war, famine, etc, in the home country. They are treated inhumanely in the U.K. by the Home Office policies. The tragic events in Glasgow occurred as a direct cause of those policies. Herding vulnera
Robert Cassells	Private Citizen
Robert Rae	Director	Our Land Productions	The treatment of Asylum Seekers by the UK governments chosen private company is disgusting. The Scottish Government and Glasgow City Council have failed to intervene and ensure their conditions are humane is equally abhorrent- especially when they throw u
Robert Rae	Director/Writer	Our Land Productions	The sad recent events have exposed the brutality and inhumanity of Britain's Asylum system. The Scottish Government's constant denial of responsibility does nothing to help Asylum Seekers but only makes them feel morally superior to England. What's to sto
Robert Stewart	Private Citizen		Those responsible for this policy should be held to account. Vulnerable people's immediate needs must be resolved immediately.
Robina Qureshi	Director	Positive Action in Housing	I've seen 20 years of neglect and lack of care by corporate profiteers in Glasgow recruited by the Home Office, passing themselves off as "caring landlords" with policies they don't understand. The level of neglect by Mears hand in hand with the Home Offi
Robyn Moffat-Wall	Private Citizen
Rogan Boon	Private Citizen
Roman Sharkey	Private Citizen		Ill-treatment of people in need of help is a moral outcry, no person is illegal and have the right to their rights.

Rona McGill	Private Citizen		I read of the plight of the asylum seekers and how badly they've been treated, I think it's horrendous
Rorie Booth	Mechanical Engineer		Answers are needed. Why was this thoughtless and inhumane process carried out with so little thought for the welfare of those that need it most? How can we stop this happening again?
Rory Harkins	Private Citizen
Rosaleen Solomonidis	Private Citizen		In support of inhumane treatment of asylum seekers by Home Office and Meats group
Rosalind Hashmi	Retired		I hope this gets the support the refugees need...it's been too long that they've been ignored.
Rosalyn Bonner	Private Citizen		The decision to remove asylum seekers from their homes and subject them to a regime of almost forced detention by a corporation motivated by profit is clearly in breach of the lock down rules and this must be fully investigated
Rose Filippi	Development Coordinator	Maryhill Integration Network	In full support of PAIH's demands and the request for a public inquiry. It's time to use our anger and sadness over these avoidable tragedies to call for change and an end to the hostile environment.
Rose Henderson	Private Citizen
Rose-Marie Barbeau	Private Citizen		As a society and nation, Scotland will be judged by how we treat those most vulnerable among us, and we must not let them fall, unnoticed and uncared for. We have a responsibility, as part of the Western countries that laid the historical foundation for i
Rosemary Gray	Private Citizen		People should be treated like we like to be treated not all put in hotels and left without any support
rosemary hartill	Private Citizen		Ashamed and horrified at reports of suffering of asylum seekers
Rosemary O'Donnell	Private Citizen
Rosie Burrell	Student		Because I care about refugee rights
Rosie McCaffrey	Private Citizen		-
Rosie McKean	Private Citizen
Rosie Quin	Teacher
Ross McCrae	Private Citizen		There needs to be scrutiny and transparency.
Rowan Matthews	Private Citizen
Rowena Piers	Private Citizen

Ruairidh MacLure	Private Citizen		We are on your side
Ruby Hirsch	TEFL Teacher
Ruby Zajac	CFN Producer, Licketyspitt	Licketyspitt Theatre & Play Charity	Most of us believe in a fair & equal society based on human rights and empathy. We must come together to demand leaders listen to our collective demands, revoke the hostile environment and uphold their commitment to the declaration of Human Rights.
Ruth Bullough	Private Citizen		Because it was a wrong and discriminatory decision
Ruth Cape	Development Worker	South East Integration Network	We have been asking from the start why people were moved from their flats in to these hotels, questioning the way this was carried out, and what this means for those forced to live there. An inquiry in to this decision was necessary then, and it is absolu
Ruth chalmers	Private Citizen
Ruth dada	Private Citizen		People lives matter and asylums lives matter, no one should be treated this way
Ruth Harris	Private Citizen
Ruth Kirkby	Private Citizen
Ruth Longmuir	Private Citizen		Asylum seekers have been through enough trauma already, they should be treated well in the UK and welcomed to a place of safety.
Ruth Robin	Private Citizen		Confinement of individuals with known mental health problems combined within communal living is barbaric and unnecessary.
Ruth Seglow	Child and Adolescent Psychotherapist		Refugees and asylum seekers deserve our full care and attention, since they are human beings who have fallen on hard times. It is shameful that they have been dealt with in this way. They need decent accommodation, as do we all, to be kept safe in order e
Ruth Webber	Research Associate	Loughborough University	We are not free until we are all free
Ryan Mitchell	Private Citizen		.
Ryanna Ferran	Private Citizen		Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere. Something needs to be done to create change.
S Robertson	Private Citizen		The system is not working.
Sabir Zazai	Chief Executive, Scottish Refugee Council	Scottish Refugee Council	It's important that all circumstances around this tragedy are investigated. The Home Office and its contractors have some serious and fundamental questions to answer. With deep frustrations, we are calling for a dignified, measured and immediate response.

Sabrina Allison	Director	Light on the Path	The people and support organisations of Glasgow are incredibly supportive of asylum seekers and want to help them make a better life, but the UK Home Office and their subcontractor Mears Group take a very different approach. Breaking rules on eviction, an
Sabrina Allison	Private Citizen		The treatment of asylum seekers by Mears Group has been horrendous in so many ways. The human rights abuses in their own right merit a public enquiry, but they are a result of services commissioned with tax-payers' money, means the public also deserves a
Sajida Bismil	Private Citizen
Saleh Mamon	Retired headteacher		Solidarity with all asylum seekers and refugees, they should have dignity
Salim Dekin	Chairman of human rights organisation in London	Representing Sudanese people in particular the people of Nuba Mountains in the Sudan	South Kordofan Organisation for Human Rights and Development of Nuba Mountains, against abuse of human rights wherever will, our Organisation stand shoulder to shoulder with you.
sally griffin	retired nurse		Asylum seekers' lives matter. People who come to the UK for help should be treated with respect and compassion. Their welfare should not depend on profit-making companies like Mears, Serco etc.
sally louise charlton	Private Citizen		Our country will be judged by how well we welcome asylum seekers and immigrants, let us do it well. Anyone in the world could find themselves in that situation
Sam mcnealey	Private Citizen		I think asylum seekers have been treated appallingly. Mears & the government cannot get away with this. The people of Scotland need to make their feelings known. I have emailed my MP & MSP.
sam naidoo	Private Citizen
Sam Tongue	Project coordinator
Samantha Jack	Private Citizen
Samantha Reynolds	Private Citizen		Asylum seekers deserve support and aid during this stressful time and should be treated as human beings. It's not a debate it's a demand.
Samuel Boateng	Private Citizen

Sandra Scott	Private Citizen		I'm appalled by the treatment of these vulnerable people by meters group and 5he home office
Sandra Brown	Retired
Sandra Grant	Retired psychiatrist		I welcome people who come to Scotland who have gone through so much so bravely. And then we do not give them adequate (minimal) housing and support. It shakes us as a nation.
Sandra Owen	Private Citizen
Sandra Quinn	Private Citizen		I would like to see all refugees treated as human beings fir a change.
Sandy McEwen	Private Citizen Member of the Society of Friends (Quakers)		because I support justic for all and the asylem seekers were treated badly and let down by the Home Office
Sara Cowan	Private Citizen		We need to know the truth about why people have been moved during the pandemic without appropriate safety measures or support - both financial and for people's well-being
Sara Dibb	Private Citizen		The treatment of asylum seekers by Meers and the home office is degrading and inhuman. It creates a hostile environment which brings shame on our country.
Sara Rasmussen	Private Citizen		Asylum seekers by their very nature of what they have experienced are some of the most vulnerable people in our society, who deserve our compassion, care and help, taking into account their diverse ethnic backgrounds and traumatic history. This is not wha
Sara Shaarawi	Playwright
Sara Thomas	Trainer & Event Professional		A full public enquiry must now be made!
Sarah Armstrong	Private Citizen		Given the recent events in Glasgow's City Centre, it has become evident just how unacceptable the current living conditions are. Mental Health of human beings has been taken for granted and there have already been dire consequences. It isn't an option t
Sarah Bradburn	Private Citizen	Unison
Sarah Grant	Nhs
Sarah Hannah Rakhra	Student	Stand up to Racism
Sarah Hutchison	Private Citizen
Sarah McAulay	Private Citizen		People seeking asylum have experienced extreme trauma and Need support and compassion from the country they are in.

			The conditions and treatment of asylum seekers needs investigation and total change
Sarah McCulloch	University tutor/ Independent Practice Teacher/ Social Worker	Independent Practice Teacher
Sarah McEwan	Playgroup Manager
Sarah Myers	Private Citizen
Sarah Pollock	Private Citizen		I think it unjust to treat asylum seekers the way they are being treated and think Mears should be held to account
Sarah Roberts Dempsey	Community Engagement Worker		The Home Office and Mears Group must be held to account for their treatment of the vulnerable and traumatised people seeking asylum in the UK. Why were asylum seekers removed from their homes and placed into hotels with one hour to 30 mins notice, at a ti
Sarah Stone	Tutor		Praying for your work. You are amazing!
Sarah Weakley	Private Citizen
Saskia Harper	Private Citizen
Scott	Private Citizen
Scott Kemp	Auditor		All people should be treated with dignity and respect, whether seeking asylum or a citizen.
Sean Clerkin	Campaign Coordinator	Scottish Tenants Organisation	Please give all Asylum Seekers homes
Sean harty	Private Citizen		People seeking help in the UK should be treated with dignity
Sean Mainwaring	Private Citizen
Seannine Henderson	Private Citizen
Seema Sood	Private Citizen		City centre hotel incident and subsequent tragic death of young man.
Selina Hales	Director	Refuweegeee	Because it is the right thing to do.
Seona Reid	Private Citizen		Outraged by the inhumanity and discrimination
Shaista Bashir	Private Citizen		Na
Shane Goodbody	Private Citizen
Shani Walker	Bookseller
Shania Devi	Private Citizen
Shareef Abdulkarim Y Ahmed	Student		We must live on any where
Sharon Berrie	Private Citizen		We need to stand together and stop dehumanising people we should be embracing

Sharon Campbell	Wellbeing Officer		This is criminal and can't be allowed to go on.
Sharon O'Leary	Dog walker
Sharon Robertson	Administrator
Sharon Roulston	Private Citizen		For humane treatment of humans on this planet
Shaun M	Private Citizen
Shaun McLaughlin	Private Citizen
Shauna Donaldson	Assistant Psychologist	NHS GGC
Shaunagh Hendry	Psychologist	NHS	Because I'm outraged at the way Asylum seekers and minority groups are being treated by this country especially during a global pandemic. I believe that I have a duty to stand up and support those people that are under represented and discriminated agains
Sheila Allan	Private Citizen
Sheila Brodie	Private Citizen		The treatment of refugees is a disgrace
Sheila H Wood	Retired
Sheila Hind	Private Citizen
Sheila Hind	Private Citizen
Sheila Munro	Private citizen (retired)		Everyone should be afforded dignity, and that includes wholesome food, suitable shelter, access to medical treatment just for a start. And kindness and compassion.
Sheila Ryan	Private Citizen		We need snswers
Sheila Skinner	Private Citizen		These services should not be run for profit Vulnerable people should be protected Everyone should be able to obtain safe secure housing Stop propping up the hoarding of property and profiteering by private companies
Sian Downes	Event Planner	Strawberry Lemonade Events	Injustice breeds injustice, but compassion breeds compassion
Sian Evans	Private Citizen
Sidra iq	Student	Public	Human rights
Sila Collins	Private Citizen		This treatment of these human beings is appalling, we should not allow such a situation, to even arise! So shocking, these people need our help we must support them in anyway we can. It's cruel if we don't.
silas curtis	Private Citizen	Maslow's Community Shop	cannot trust the home office, mears or police to conduct an inquiry
Simon Pugh	Private Citizen		Because we are all human and deserve to be treated fairly.

Simon Thompson	Private Citizen		The treatment of asylum seekers and refugees in this country is scandalous, if not criminal. A society is judged by how it treats its most vulnerable people. A public enquiry is essential to get the facts and shed proper light on this issue.
Sindhu	Private Citizen
Siobhain Ma	Private Citizen		Safe housing is a basic human right. Edible food is a basic human right.
Siobhan O'Neill	Private Citizen		Refugees should be treated with respect and compassion. The way Mears has dealt with such vulnerable people is disgusting.
Smina Akhtar	Researcher	University of Glasgow
Sneh Jani-Patel	Private Citizen	Bread & Roses
Sobia Rasool	Private Citizen		People no matter what race or religion deserve their freedoms, deserve to feel safe and protected, deserve to live their best life. It's not a luxury it's a Right of all humans!
Sofia Rivera	Private Citizen		It is disgraceful to have human beings living in such conditions, without support and without any means. People should be moved back to homes and should have an allowance re-instated.
Sonia Anker-Petersen	Private Citizen		The living conditions and treatment that asylum seekers are receiving at the hands of Mears is absolutely appalling. Many of these asylum seekers have experienced complex trauma in the past and are seeking safety in Glasgow, yet instead are being forced t
Sonja Miley	Co-Executive Director	Waging Peace
Sophia Qureshi	Private Citizen
Sophie Elgar	Private Citizen
Sophie Murphy	Private Citizen
Sophie Smith	Charity worker
Stacy Ferguson	Nurse
Stephanie Fincham	Private Citizen
Stephanie Gibson	Private Citizen		These vulnerable people are being treated appallingly. The Home Office must terminate Mears contract and pass it on to Glasgow City Council to run. People require basic human rights of food, shelter and respect.
Stephanie nicholson	Private Citizen		Showing my support

Stephen Brackenridge	Support Practitioner		I don't get why people are still treated this way in the 20th Century
Stephen Hibbs	Haematology Registrar	NHS	These are human beings who have suffered and are suffering. We can and must do better to share what we have and to treat them with humanity.
Stephen Lynch	Private Citizen		No person that comes to my city is illegal. Refugees Welcome!
Stephen McKee	Private Citizen
Stephen Smellie	UNISON South Lanarkshire	UNISON South Lanarkshire
Steve Banks	Retired
Steve Cooke	Chair Derbyshire Refugee Solidarity	Derbyshire Refugee Solidarity	To show support to those campaigning for reasonable treatment of other human beings
Steve Kirkwood	Senior Lecturer
Steve Mulligan	Private Citizen
Steven McCluskey	Director (voluntary)	Bikes for Refugees (Scotland)	We see on a daily basis the negative effect that the UKs draconian and hostile asylum system has on vulnerable individuals and families - from feelings of hopelessness and loss of dignity to being forced to live in unfit housing conditions with a lack of
Stuart Scott	Social Work Student and private citizen		We as the UK and Scotland can do better for those in need
Sue Bard	retired local government officer		It is essential that this inquiry takes place.
Sue Lowe	Private Citizen		These asylum seekers should be treated fairly and humanely and must be supported and helped, especially after all they have been through. The way they have been treated so far by the Home Office and Mears is disgraceful and shameful.
Susan Bradford	Private Citizen		Words cannot describe how upset and angry I feel about this. These people deserve better.
Susan brown	Private Citizen		People have the right to be safe. To be treated reasonably and to be identified if they need help and be given it.
Susan Brush	Private Citizen		Our city's treatment of these asylum seekers has been shameful. We need an inquiry into how this happened. Urgently, we must reinstate them in their flats, and restart their cash allowance.

Susan Clark	Private Citizen		Tired of the Government and media lying to the general public about the way in which people in the asylum system are treated in the UK. It's shameful and a national scandal.
Susan Galloway	Private Citizen
Susan Hamilton	Private Citizen
Susan Jessiman	Retired social worker now independent practice teacher.		The way asylum seekers have been treated is scandalous and must change.
Susan Johnston	Retired		I abhor the rounding up of asylum seekers into Mears hotels. I hope that some people know there are others who do not agree with this policy
Susan Kidd	Private Citizen
Susan Mary Anthony	Private Citizen		The treatment of refugees and all other migrants in the UK is a disgrace. I can no longer hold the Scottish authorities blameless. Outsourcing to profiteers has to stop.
Susan McIntosh	Retired
Susan McMahon	Poverty truth volunteer	Poverty truth community	I am appalled at the conditions in the covid accomadation
Susan Mitchell	Private Citizen		I am shocked (and ashamed) to hear how these asylum seekers are being treated. They are people not animals and should be treated with humanity and compassion.
Susan Moffat	Private Citizen		Asylum seekers are being treated very badly in the hotel accomodation they have been moved to. Glasgow City Council should take full responsibility for their care
Susan Rose	Reverend		Almost in desolations a government that are apparently infallible while the vulnerable suffer
Susan Sellar	Retired adult Education tutor (ESOL)		I am deeply shocked by the description of conditions in these hotels and in the treatment of refugees by the Mears group. This should not be happening in our country which has a long history of making refugees welcome.
Susan Tulley	Charity Worker
Susan Zante	Private Citizen		We need an enquiry to find out what went wrong and help these people get the support they need to settle properly in to our country.
susanna singlehurst	Service co-ordinator		shocking treatment of vulnerable people
Suzanne Crimin	Private Citizen
Sydney Wheatley	Private Citizen		Private contractors should be held accountable to providing dignified accommodations for asylum seekers.

Sylvia Margaret Crick	Retired		The situation for these asylum seekers sounds heartbreaking. Well done to PAIH and others who are trying to ensure they have better living conditions and some basic income to stay in touch with family and legal representatives.
Tam Dean Burn	Actor	Burnt Goods	This is a deadly scandal that must be dealt with and learnt from immediately.
Tamara Al-Om	Private Citizen
Támara Paulsen Wilson	Private Citizen		Because people deserve basic decency and human rights.
Tatina Semprini	Massage Therapist
Tawny Macleod	Waitress
Terence William Jones	Private Citizen
Teresa Batchelor	Foster parent uasc		I'm so sorry how we neglect vulnerable people who we should be helping I am yet again so ashamed to be British
Teresa Piacentini	Senior Lecturer, Uni of Glasgow	University of Glasgow	I oppose the racist immigration controls in place in the UK, I support a humane approach to refuge for all people, I condemn the default position of profit over lives.
Teri Barbour	Private Citizen		I am appalled, distressed and deeply angry at the treatment of people seeking refuge in this country by an organisation and a government intent on profit before humanity.
Thomas Eckhart	Private Citizen
THOMAS Kay	School Support Assistant	South Lanarkshire Unison	These people need assistance to live a normal life until their asylum claims are processed.
Tiia Makkonen	photographer		All immigrants to Scotland should have the same right to decency and respect, and help to comfortably start a new life here.
Tim Denvir	Private Citizen
Tim Lehuraux	Project Lead - Housing and Homelessness	Positive Action in Housing	Human Rights, Transparency, Accountability - Save Lives Not Pounds
Tom Johnstone	Retired		Philp insisted that the Home Office response was "compassionate and generous" and that there was "no reasonable basis for criticising it". Why do we have to listen to such nonsense?
Tom Leinster	Private Citizen
Toni Tochel	Private Citizen

Tony Greenstein	Treasurer	The Brighton Trust	It's about time we took the private sector out of asylum support
Tony Hayler	Private Citizen		people come to Scotland looking for hope and peace what does it say about us as a nation if we cant show humanity.
Tony Khan	Actor	World Spirit Theatre	Justice shall prevail
Trish Brown	Private Citizen		It's important
Trish Healy	Private Citizen
Tristan Molloy	Retired support worker		I support the determination of Positive Action in Housing and others to ensure asylum seekers have their human rights respected, which includes being accommodated in safe and healthy homes. I abhor the inhumane actions of Mears and the government and req
Tuscany McKenzie	Private Citizen		Because I care about asylum seekers
Una Carnochan	Private Citizen		We need to treat asylum seekers with dignity and fairness
Ursula Canton	Private Citizen
Usman Aslam	Solicitor		I regularly speak out for change in the Immigration & Asylum field
Val Williamson	Private Citizen		Horrified by the injustice and inhumanity shown to people seeking asylum.
Valerie Gauld	Retired schoolteacher		This situation is inhuman and a crime against the human rights of people who are fleeing intolerable situations. It is absolutely shameful and I thank Positive Action for Housing for all the important work you are doing to fight for the vulnerable and pow
Vanessa A	Private Citizen
vanessa nias	Private Citizen		all strength and good luck
Vera Schroeter	Private Citizen
Veronica	Private Citizen		These people deserve better than this.Lets do the right thing and respect their needs.Lets do it right away.Act now.
Veronica Campanile	Private Citizen
Veronica Harty	Private Citizen
Vicki mckenna	Retired
Vicki Squire	Professor of International Politics	University of Warwick
Victoria Evans	Private Citizen		Asylum seekers should be treated with respect, dignity and compassion. The hostile environment must end.

Victoria Gilbert	Private Citizen
Victoria Goodban	Consultant		End this deadly hostile environment
Victoria Redclift	Associate Professor of Political Sociology	UCL	This is a humanitarian disaster - the Council must intervene
Victoria Van Middel	Private Citizen		People have a basic human right to be treated with dignity and these practices do not promote dignity nor do they ensure the continued wellbeing, good mental health and physical health and development of asylum seekers. Also providing poor nutrition and h
Vivian Barty-Taylor	Private Citizen		I am appalled at the story of neglect by Scottish authorities of asylum seekers.
vivien stewart	Health Improvement Practitioner		The treatment of already traumatised asylum seekers and refugees during the COVID pandemic is disgraceful and needs a public enquiry to ensure all the facts are known so there can be no repetition
Vivienne Newton	Private Citizen		Shocked by information emerging after recent incident at Park Inn. Want to help in any way possible although I live in London.
Will Golding	Private Citizen		Complete disregard for human rights, safety, basic dignity and respect, and pre-existing laws and rights of asylum seekers. Utterly disgusting treatment of basic human life by the UK Government and the Mears Group.
Will Sutcliffe	Chair, Bradford City of Sanctuary	Bradford City of Sanctuary	We are equally concerned at the impact of the use of hotels to house asylum seekers in Bradford; in particular the denial of any cash support
william edward leadbitter	sundries clerk		Atrocious conditions assylum seekers are kept in
William Pugh	Masters student
Wyrimo Barron	Private Citizen
Yasmin Salek	Private Citizen		Refugees and asylum seekers have escaped danger, poverty, war, oppression to seek refuge in what should be a safe place. They deserve to be welcomed and treated like humans, just how we would treat ourselves. We need to do better to keep these innocent in
Yasoda Winmill-Hermann	Private Citizen		Every person in Scotland deserves to be treated like a human being, every person has the right to comfort and shelter.
Yolanda Archibald	Ex Housing		Because refugees should be treated with dignity and care

Yumna Mohamed	Private Citizen		I know the this country can do better to support vulnerable people. Privatization does harm to everyone and it is unbearable to me to think that our leaders support this kind of inhumanity. If they do, we will surely vote them out!
Yve Barry	Student
Yvonne Chan	Accounts assistant
Yvonne McFadden	Private Citizen
Zac Sean Mullin	Student
zain saleem	Private Citizen
Zara Christie	Private Citizen
Zemirah Moffat	Private Citizen		Because this treatment of fellow human beings is inhumane
Zhan McIntyre	Head of Policy and Customer Standards		Private companies profiting from vulnerable refugees is wrong.
Zsara McEwan	Private Citizen		